GETTYSBURG YOUTH CENTER ASKS CHARTER

The "Gettysburg Youth Center" is seeking a charter as a nonprofit corporation.

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman has filed in the prothonotary's office a petition for chartering of the Gettysburg Youth Center as a corporation to eventually control quarters for youth activities in the community.

The petition lists the Bix-Sway store on Chambersburg St. as the "office" of the proposed corporation.

STATE PURPOSES

The corporation is designed, according to the petition, to provide facilities where teen-agers can gain "a perspective of social values," an opportunity to "express their interests," to provide a center with the "proper atmosphere and supervision in which teen-agers may spend their leisure time," provide "adequate recreational opportunities for teen-agers," led to the "development of leadership, responsibility and interest in community affairs," help develop "good habits of everyday living" by learning to meet other people, "develop social culture" and "overcome shyness and self-consciousness," to endeavor to "raise the social standards of youth in the community," to provide entertainment "in an educational way" and to "fulfill the broad basic needs of the teen-agers" and "to use our own facilities instead of school facilities which usually are in conflict."

The incorporators and officers are listed as John D. Smith, 74 E. Water St., president; Gerald C. Bixler, Gettysburg R. 5, vice president; Mary B. Smith, 74 E. Water St., secretary; John E. Settle, Gettysburg R. 3, treasurer, and Walter B. Lane, 34 York St., director.

The organization has assets of $861 including $500 in a building fund, $350 in furnishings and equipment and $11 in a checking account.

File $1,500 Claim Against Arquette

William S. and Mary E. Ayre, Gettysburg, have entered a foreign attachment in equity in the prothonotary's office against Cliff Arquette, former museum operator here and TV comedian as "Charley Weaver." Arquette is said to be in California.

The attachment, on property of Arquette at Queen St. and Long Lane, is described as based upon a claim of $1,500 by the Ayres against Arquette.

The form, following the usual pattern, calls upon the sheriff to notify Arquette and any garnishees here of the attachment and prohibits the garnishees from paying any debts, sending any sums to Arquette, etc., until the matter is settled.

ELECTED TEACHER

Philip A. Graham, Carlisle, a recent graduate of Gettysburg College, has been elected as a political science teacher and coach of Seventh and Eighth Grade basketball in the Big Spring Joint System, Newville.

Stu Sizzles At Nickel Dare, Gavels Humphrey Hearing To Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., angrily accused former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey of insulting the Senate today and refused to hear further testimony on nickel deals involving Humphrey's mining interests.

Symington opened the second day of Humphrey's testimony by objecting to comments the former top Eisenhower administration official had made to the press.

He said the Humphrey statement Thursday was an insult to the Senate in that it charged the stockpile investigation was politically motivated.

ENDS HEARING

Brushing aside demands by Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn., for a vote, Symington said he planned to adjourn the hearings for further investigation.

Humphrey started to make a statement, demanding to be heard.

"You wouldn't dare," Humphrey said, and Symington's gavel banged down.

"This hearing is adjourned," snapped Symington. "Don't ever try to tell a United States senator what he would dare or wouldn't dare."

Humphrey, honorary chairman and former head of the M. A. Hanna Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, had

Former Guard Unit To Hold Reunion

The former National Guard unit that was called to active duty here before the outbreak of World War II will hold its seventh annual reunion over the weekend at the VFW home here. About 100 former members of the unit and their wives are expected to attend.

Members of the 728th Ordnance Company and E Company, 103rd Quartermaster Regiment, will gather this evening at the VFW home. There will be a banquet there Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock and a Sunday morning trip over the battlefield.

The president of the reunion group, Francis I. Linn; secretary, Samuel Kessel; and treasurer, Lawrence Guise, are in charge of arrangements for the get-together.

G-BURG CADET GETS KENNEDY AMNESTY OKAY

AFROTC cadets of Otis AFB's summer training unit have a deep feeling of gratitude for their commander-in-chief over and beyond their normal measure of respect and loyalty.

Recently, when President John F. Kennedy passed through Otis on his way from Washington, D. C., to his summer home on Cape Cod, he stopped to talk and shake hands with some of the well-wishers who had assembled on the flight line to greet him. Included in this group were Cadets Robert M. Duncan, John E. Eber-sole, Thomas R. Glodek and James T. Hacker, all of Gettysburg College.

It was during this informal exchange that Cadet Colonel Robert M. Duncan of the college made a plea to Kennedy on behalf of the entire cadet unit. He requested that the President grant amnesty to all cadets who had accumulated demerits during the first week of summer training.

The organization has assets of $861 including $500 in a building fund, $350 in furnishings and equipment and $11 in a checking account.

When President Kennedy, as commander-in-chief of all the armed services, granted the amnesty, the entire cadet group gave him a heart-felt cheer of appreciation.

The story behind the amnesty gave a good insight into the cadet summer training program. Always conducted at an Air Force

Youth Burned When Can Of Tar Explodes

Perry Lee Shull, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shull, R. 4, was reported in a satisfactory condition today at the Warner Hospital where he was taken in the New Oxford ambulance Thursday at 5 p.m. after suffering severe first and second degree burns.

Shull and a playmate are reported to have been at a cottage along a creek and were heating a can which they believed contained beans. The can, however, contained tar which exploded.

The youth suffered first and second degree burns of the face, arms, chest, abdomen and thighs.

JAPANESE GIRL HAS DREAMS OF VISIT TO U.S.A.

A seventeen-year-old Japanese girl, Hiroko Nakashima, has her heart set on journeying to the United States to see things here first hand. The comely youngster, a resident of Nagoya, Japan, recently sent the following letter to The Gettysburg Times:

"I imagine that you are surprised at this letter that came suddenly. But, please read my letter till the last, and make it public in your newspaper."

"I have known your newspaper company by my pen friend in Pennsylvania. I am a seventeen-year-old student named Hiroko Nakashima. And I live with my mother and two sisters at Nagoya in Japan."

"I have long wanted to study abroad in the U.S.A. But I have no money. We are not so rich. So, please look for a kind family in the U.S.A. who will give me all expenses to go to the U.S.A. and to live in it and my small room in the U.S.A."

"I can't write and speak English fluently, but I will work hard if I can go to the U.S.A."

"I want to go to the U.S.A. to know the American's life and thought and to gain experience of my own life and to see the world by my eyes. If there would be an American family who becomes my sponsor, I should be very happy. I am afraid I could not express what I want to say in English, but I am looking forward to a good information."

Miss Nakashima lives at 118-3 Shindeki-machi, Higashi-ku, Nagoya, Japan.

HOLD HEARINGS ON BAD CHECKS

H. F. Dieterley, Pennsburg R. 1, waived a hearing before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Thursday afternoon on three charges involving checks and at the same time said he planned to plead guilty to the charges when he appears before the court.

Dieterley is now in York County jail facing similar charges there.

As a result of Dieterley's testimony at the hearing before Justice Snyder, Arthur Beamer, York, was held for court on three of the charges and found innocent on one count of a three-count charge involving checks cashed at Kenzie's Market here.

WOMAN FREED

And also as a result of Dieterley's testimony, charges brought against Hazel Herman, York, in connection with the cashing of the checks with the amounts secured to be divided equally between the two.

He added that, while the York woman was along with them when he and Beamer visited Gettysburg to cash checks, the matter was not discussed in her presence, nor was there any division of money in her presence and that if she had any knowledge of what was going on during the visits here, as far as the cashing of checks were concerned, it

Five Americans Released By Pro-Red Forces In Laos

By ANTOINE YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Five Americans and a Filipino held captive for more than a year by pro-Communist forces were released today.

The men, who had all grown beards during their captivity, were cheered by a crowd of several hundred as they emerged from the twin-engine Soviet plane that brought them to Vientiane from Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plaine des Jarres.

Those released were Maj. Lawrence Bailey, Laurel, Md., assistant military attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Vientiane; John Morrow, Brooklyn, N.Y.; John Shore Jr., Galloway, Tenn.; Sgt. Orville Ballenger, Columbus, Ohio; NBC cameraman Grant Wolfkill of Shelton, Wash., and Lorenzo Frigillana of the Philippines.

10TH ANTIQUE SHOW OPENED BY JAYCEES

From costly glassware to the tiny toys of a century ago, from ceramics to the general orders of a Civil War officer, thousands of articles were on display this afternoon for the opening of the 10th annual Antiques Show and Sales being held by the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at the local high school gymnasium. The show closes Sunday.

With 24 exhibitors occupying 26 booths, the show offers something for everyone, Jaycee officials said.

For the Civil War buffs there are rifles and swords, and such items as wool sponges for cannon rammers, a field dispatch from Brigadier General Walter C. Whitaker to Major George H. Thomas stating "Lookout Mountain is ours" and a collection of general orders, court martial reports and other records of Maj. Gen. Birney of the Third Corps of the Union Army who won fame on the second day at Gettysburg.

GREAT VARIETY

Youngsters and their parents found fascinating hundreds of old toys on display, ranging from homespun rag dolls to toy furniture, the cast-iron horses and wagons of an earlier age and even old hobby horses.

On display are the "pin up pictures" of the 1880's, a collection of cardboard cutout toy soldiers including "Black Jack" Pershing on his horse. Old school desks are shown, as are thousands of examples of early glass work, plates, copper and bronze work and early tools.

LIST EXHIBITORS

H. J. TROXELL DIES IN SLEEP THIS MORNING

Harry J. Troxell, 69, owner of the former Strand Theater here, died this morning about 6 o'clock in his sleep at his home on E. Broadway.

The former county treasurer had retired about 11:30 o'clock Thursday night. His wife, on awakening this morning, noticed the stillness of her husband and it was found that death had occurred. He had been under a physician's care and had visited his physician Thursday afternoon.

A son of the late Harry E. and S. Louise (Gallagher) Troxell, he had attended Gettysburg Academy and Gettysburg College, where he had been a student from 1910 to 1913. A native of Gettysburg, he had always resided here. He was born April 26, 1893.

WORLD WAR I VET

He had owned and managed the Strand Theater here from 1911 to 1931 and showed the first sound films in Gettysburg there. He later leased the theater to the Warner Brothers organization. The theater had been open for many years, but in the last few years had been closed. With the expiration of the lease for the theater, Mr. Troxell had determined to remodel his building at the corner of E. Middle and Baltimore Sts. and had begun a few weeks ago the work of altering the theater portion of the building and effecting other changes to the structure.

He had served as treasurer of Adams County from 1924 to 1928 and for many years had been employed by the state at Harrisburg where he was assistant director of the Bureau of Securities and Deposits at the time of his retirement in 1956.

A World War I veteran, he has served overseas in France for 11 months as a sergeant in the Medical Corps. Upon his return he became a charter member of the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion and was a past commander of that post. He also was a member of the 40 and 8 and of the Elks here. He was a member of the Last Man's Club.

SERVICES MONDAY

He was a member of St. James Lutheran Church.

Surviving are his wife, the former Tillie Garver, whom he wed 40 years ago July 22; two sons, Harry G. Troxell, Birmingham, Mich., and William E. Troxell, Gettysburg R. 3, and four grandchildren.

FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. John Bishop officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

Estes Scheme Withheld From Ag Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., charged today that evidence which would have nipped the Billie Sol Estes schemes was withheld deliberately from Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman by trusted aides.

McClellan gave the appraisal as he called John C. Bagwell, Agriculture Department general counsel, for another day of quizzing by the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

McClellan's subcommittee seeks to learn whether politicians used influence to help Estes amass a fortune from federal farm aid deals, and to snare investigations of what Estes was doing.

Bagwell testified Thursday that not until last April 11 did Freeman receive his first real picture of what the Estes deals involved. It then took the secretary only about 48 hours to start a crackdown on the Pecos, Tex., promoter, Bagwell said.

In earlier hearings, witnesses swore that investigation after investigation of Estes had been attempted prior to April but never seemed to get anywhere.

Estes is awaiting trial on federal and Texas fraud and theft charges.

An application for a marriage license has been filed with Justice of the Peace Dayne E. Garrett, Hanover, by David Harold Dubs, Hanover, R. 3, and Cecilia Ann Gouker, Littlestown R. 1.

Issues Warning On Scarlet Fever

The Adams County medical director, Dr. C. G. Crist, today urged parents to call their family physicians at once if any of their children display a rash in order to head off a possible scarlet fever epidemic when school opens.

Noting that reports from physicians show a number of cases of scarlet fever in the county, Dr. Crist said he is issuing the request now so that the spread of the disease may be stopped before school opens and great numbers of children are exposed to possible infection.

He added that parents should not feel that "scarlet fever" is any less serious than scarlet fever. "The term is just another word for scarlet fever," Dr. Crist said.

YORK BANDS GIVE CONCERT HERE SUNDAY

About 350 persons will participate in the third annual educational trip of LaRose Accordion Band, York, on Sunday, featuring tours of the Gettysburg area and a concert by the 150-piece band.

The entourage, traveling in nine chartered buses, will leave York at 1:15 p.m. A tour of the new Visitor Center in Gettysburg is scheduled for 3 p.m. and a battlefield tour will get underway at 4:30 p.m.

Combined bands of the York, Dallastown, Loganville and Wrightsville areas will present a public concert at 7:30 p.m. on the steps of the Pennsylvania Monument under the direction of Leo LaRose. Joseph D. Rajahn, Dallastown, will accompany the group as guest vocal soloist.

CONCERT PROGRAM

The program arranged is as follows: "Pennsylvania Polka," "Skating," "Drink To Me Only," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Go Way"; organ solo, "Camp-town Races," Samuel Keeny; "Home Sweet Home," "Dreaming," "Somebody's Darling," "Big Parade," "When the Saints Go Marchin' In."

Vocal solo, "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands," by Joseph Rojahn, accompanied by Samuel Keeny; "The Vacant Chair," "Come to the Sea," "Goover Peas"; a musical reading, "The House I Live In," by Mrs. Ruth Marshall, Dallastown.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," "Vive L'Amour," "Poet and Peasant Overture"; vocal solo, "Let Us Break Together on Our Knees" by Joseph Rojahn; "Can Can" and "God Bless America."

The youth band, parents and other guests will finish the day at 8:45 p.m. with a visit to Fantasyland. The tour and concert was arranged through Congressman George A. Gooding.

Manned Space Flight Head Outlines Future U.S. Shots; Says Nation Won't Be 2nd

By VERN HAUGLAND

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP)—A top American space official says astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr. will be limited to six orbits of the earth, no matter how well his Project Mercury flight goes.

"The mission is scheduled for recovery near Midway Island after six orbits, and that is the way it will be flown," D. Brainerd Holmes, director of manned space flight programs for the United States, said Thursday.

Thus, the fact that two Soviet cosmonauts zipped around the earth for three and four days will have no immediate effect on the U.S. program.

SEPTEMBER LAUNCH

Holmes said Schirra, a Navy commander, will be launched on his space venture in the middle or at the end of September. His will be the only six-orbit mission, the space chief said. The next Mercury flight will be for 18 orbits and take a full day.

"I will commit to you that this nation will be second to none in the conquest of space," Holmes said.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration official told his audience at Virginia Polytechnic Institute here was somewhat surprised at the reaction of many

INVITE COUNTY FOLK TO PLACE FAIR EXHIBITS

President M. E. Knouse of the South Mountain Fair Association issued an urgent invitation today to countless to place exhibits at the fair. "The displays of the products of Adams County skill, ingenuity and handwork always have been a top-notch attraction at the South Mountain Fair," Mr. Knouse said. "Now with more exhibit space available than ever before we urge county folk to enter competition for the many prizes that are being offered in many departments."

His announcement followed the final prefair meeting of the fair committee at the fairgrounds Thursday evening at which a change was announced in the entertainment schedule for the fair which will open at 6 p.m. September 4 and continue through that week.

J. Glenn Miller, chairman for entertainment, said that the York Barbershoppers Chorus will appear at the fairgrounds Thursday evening, September 6, and the "The Pixies" record hop will be held Friday evening, September 7.

Previously "The Pixies" and the record hop had been scheduled for Thursday night while the barbershoppers were listed for Friday.

NEW BUILDING READY

No changes have been made in the other scheduled entertainment. The Hanover Community Players will present a three-act comedy "A Mighty Man Is He" on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 4 and 5. A ten-act local amateur talent competition will be held Saturday, September 8, with Miller as master of ceremonies.

Miller reported that the Hanover Community Players will bring their scenery with them and a survey of the stage and facilities at Memorial Auditorium showed that it could be placed with few changes in present curtains.

County Agent Frank Zettle reported on progress of the new 22x36-foot 4-H building being constructed by the club members. Working afternoons and evenings, the 4-H members have brought the structure to the place where "we will have everything but the roof up by Saturday." It is anticipated that the open side, pole building will be completed by fair time.

Other reports showed ribbons, plaques and other awards, tickets and other necessities for the annual fair have been ordered or received.

LARGEST IN YEARS

Reports from various committee chairmen or their representatives showed all proceeding well for one of the largest fairs in some time.

According to reports a few spaces are still available for commercial rental.

A lengthy discussion was held on the new car display at the fair. An annual feature, the car display is unusually complicated this year, according to the reports, because of changes in dates for appearance of new cars which in some instances will leave usual exhibitors short of new vehicle to be shown.

WOMAN KILLED, 23 INJURED IN BUS ACCIDENT

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—A Greyhound bus slammed into the rear of a steel-tad truck on the Ohio Turnpike today, killing one woman and injuring at least 23 persons, four seriously.

The Turnpike Patrol said the bus, on its way from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, had passed a car and was pulling back into the outside lane when it collided with the semitractor-trailer. There were 27 aboard the bus.

The vehicles remained upright, but both westbound lanes of the toll road were strewn with wreckage and steel bars from the truck. Westbound traffic was at a standstill for almost two hours until work crews cleared the roadway.

BUS PASSENGER KILLED
The dead woman, not immediately identified, was a passenger on the bus. Twelve of the injured were hospitalized. At least four were reported in poor condition.

Steve Amicarella, 42, of Youngstown, the bus driver, received minor injuries. Calvin Lester, 33, of Pittsburgh, the truck driver, was not hurt. He was hauling a load of steel from Pittsburgh to Michigan.

The accident happened two miles east of the Streetsboro Interchange.

HOLD HEARING

could only have been from suspicion.

Dieterley waived to court charges of forgery, cheating by false pretense and conspiracy in connection with checks passed at Armistead's 5 and 10 and Kennedy's Market here and to a bad check charge and conspiracy in connection with a check for $38.43 cashed at Brough's Store, Benderville.

BEARER BACK TO JAIL
According to Dieterley, he and Bearer came to Gettysburg and Bearer was asked to secure some checks. Bearer then, according to Dieterley, found "someone" who would sell five checks for $1. Dieterley said he told him to buy them.

Dieterley and Bearer were charged with passing three checks at Kennedy's Store. Dieterley however said that Bearer was with him only on July 26 when two checks were cashed at the market. On the next day, Dieterley said he came to Gettysburg looking for Bearer but cashed a check at Kennedy's Market before finding Bearer. As a result the one count of the three counts against Bearer in connection with the check passing at Kennedy's Market was dropped.

Bearer denied the accusations against him but was held for court and in default of $1,500 bail, $500 on each charge, was returned to jail.

FR. P. AUMEN FORMS PARISH

The Very Rev. Paul J. Aumen, a missionary priest of the Congregation of the Most Precious Blood Fathers in Chile, has succeeded in establishing a new parish in Valdivia after 10 months of negotiations with the Chilean government. Father Aumen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Aumen, Abbotstown R. 1.

Legal permission to purchase land and build, according to word received from Father Aumen, was withheld despite action of local authorities in donating the land as his request when he planned to set up a parish there in the spring of 1961.

Father Aumen has now received permission to build but civil authorities refuse to approve a loan necessary for the erection of a parish plant.

"This is that the founding of the first parish in Chile dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus has reached the stage of a few acres of land and a church—that is, if you want to call a U. S. Army hospital tent a church," he writes.

Every Sunday Father Aumen celebrates three Masses in his church tent during which nearly 500 persons jam into the tent to join with him in the Holy Sacrifice.

G-BURG CADET

base, it provides the only period of concentrated military training which the cadets receive.

The course is of 28 days' duration, with normal duty hours from 4:45 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Each day is crowded with programmed activity which includes flying, orientation on Air Force functions, junior officer, survival and physical training.

PRIDE IN UNIT

Cadets take great pride in the discipline of their unit and the system of punishment for rule infractions, which is based on points. Demerits are charged to an individual for violations, and when a cadet receives a base number of demerits he must walk a tour at attention in a specified area on a weekend. Cadets are required to walk one tour of 25 minutes for each demerit over the base number.

If a cadet receives a merit for some outstanding action, five demerits are erased from his name. Walking a tour eliminates only one demerit.

As it turned out, President Kennedy's amnesty was a genuinely welcomed reprieve for many of the cadets who were destined to spend some of their free weekend hours walking tours.

CAMPOREE FOR SCOUTS, DADS

Final plans were announced today for the father and son camporee to be held by the Black Walnut Boy Scout District Saturday and Sunday at Camp Wolf Pit, one mile east of Aspers.

Camping will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning with registration. Because only those Scouts and Explorers accompanied by their fathers will be eligible for the camporee the registration will continue throughout the period and "anytime the father can be there, the son can be there," Merle E. Eisenhart, director of the camporee, said.

Lunch will be from 11 to 1. A Show and Do Scoutcraft program will be held from 1 to 4 at which the father will join the sons in learning about first aid, tying knots, lashing, etc. Swimming will be held from 4 to 6 and a campfire will be held at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

Sunday morning services will be held for the Protestants at the camp while the Catholics attend Mass in Gettysburg. Lunch will be from 12 to 2 p.m. At 3 p.m. a closing ceremony will be held. Milk will be sold at the camp site, Eisenhart said.

EX-CON SAYS HE KNOWS WHO ROBBED TRUCK

BOSTON (AP)—A published report today said a Rhode Island ex-convict claims to know who pulled off the $1.5 million mail robbery at Plymouth Tuesday. It said he wants to make a deal before he talks.

As the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston raised the amount of the nation's largest cash robbery by more than $50,000—to an official figure of $1,551,277—police circulated throughout the nation composite drawings of two of the white glove gang.

The composites bore striking resemblances to the notorious Bobby R. Wilcoxon, 32, formerly of Duke, Okla., and Albert F. Nussbaum, 27, wanted by the FBI for the murder of a Brooklyn, N.Y., bank guard.

CALL 60 INSPECTORS

Even with 60 postal inspectors gathered from as far distant as Pittsburgh and Miami, solving the crime would be a long, arduous process, said the nation's chief postal inspector, Henry B. Montague, 50, but he was confident the holdup would be cracked eventually.

The Boston Globe said the unidentified ex-convict, reported to be acquainted with many Rhode Island hoodlums, told Harrie C. Gill, Rhode Island State Police superintendent, he not only knows who did the robbery but "where they are right now."

Another published report said a Boston woman driving to Cape Cod Tuesday night saw a convertible headed north and a tan sedan going south exchange what appeared to be headlight signals—two short and one long flash—at about the time and place of the ambush near Plymouth.

Authorities offered no comment on the possible significance of the report.

PICK UP SUSPECT

Bernard Domanski, 45, of Central Falls, R.I., a former member of the Harvey Bistany bank robbery gang, was picked up in that state and questioned before being taken to Massachusetts State Prison at Walpole to serve time for parole violation. But Montague said neither Domanski nor anyone else could be said to be a suspect as of the moment.

The money, being shipped from Cape Cod banks to the Federal Reserve at Boston, was in registered mail pouches guarded only by the two-man crew of the mail van, armed with .38 caliber pistols.

the right-wing Laotian government, Wolfkill was with them when their helicopter crashed behind Red lines May 15, 1961.

Ballenger had been missing since April 22, 1961, when four American military advisers were captured under circumstances the State Department has refused to divulge.

Bailey was captured when his plane crashed March 23, 1961.

PROMISED FREEDOM

Frigilliana, an Air American mechanic, disappeared in December 1960, during fighting between neutralist and right-wing forces for control of Vientiane.

Pathet Lao chief Prince Souphanouvong had promised their release following last month's Geneva accord, sanctioning a coalition government for Laos and pledging the country's neutrality.

A few minutes after the six men arrived, American military officials whisked Shore, McMorrow, Ballenger and Frigilliana away. Bailey and Wolfkill stayed behind to talk to newsmen.

FEARED OTHERS DIED

Bailey, 38, said he bailed out of a plane which was transporting seven other Americans before it crashed. Speaking with great difficulty, he said he did not know what went wrong with the plane and he was afraid all others aboard had died.

Bailey said when the Pathet Lao first captured him he was held in a house in eastern Sam Neua Province and given enough food. But for the past 11 months, he said, he was confined in a cell which had only a very small window.

Bailey said his captors never beat him, but the only maltreatment was continuous questioning.

MADE FORCED LANDING

Wolfkill, 39, said the helicopter, in which he was flying with Shore and McMorrow, made a forced landing at Ban Veung San, about 40 miles north of Vientiane.

"We made a hasty landing," he said, "and nobody aboard was hurt, thanks to Shore"—the 30-year-old pilot. McMorrow, 20, was the crew chief.

He said they left the helicopter in the jungle and without warning were surrounded by Pathet Lao troops.

The three of them were held for 11 months in a room which had no light in a place near Xieng Khouang, the Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plain de Jarres.

Wolfkill said they spent terrifying hours under the watchful eyes of young Meo tribesmen guards who, he added, "were full of hatred and roaming around with their rifles loaded and firing at random."

ATE RICE, SALT

Wolfkill said that for days they were given only rice and salt to eat.

"Our condition improved when we were moved last April 6 to a Viet Minh camp," also in the Xieng Khouang area, he continued.

"Viet Minh soldiers more or less

HOUSE RUSHES BILL TO OPEN GI INSURANCE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

House has rushed through a bill to reopen the GI insurance program to disabled veterans of World War II and the Korean War—but not to able-bodied ones.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where sentiment is strong for letting all 16 million veterans of the two wars apply for the government insurance, as the House bill originally provided.

Acting with a swiftness that caught most members unawares, the leadership called up the bill late Thursday, stripped it down to cover only 1.8 million veterans injured in military service, then recessed the House for 10 days.

HASTILY MOVED

The bill originally had been scheduled for action next week. It was hastily moved forward when a light legislative load presented a chance for a late-summer vacation.

The Veterans Administration has predicted only about 100,000 of the 1.8 million disabled veterans would apply for the insurance. They would get it at the rates that applied when the program was terminated Dec. 31, 1956, with $10,000 the maximum amount that could be purchased.

The program would be reopened for one year, beginning one year after enactment of the law.

Meeting Briefed On Roaring Lions

John McGee, cashier of the Sykesville, Md., Bank, briefed Taneytown Lions on the history and background of the Roaring Lions, a public speaking group initiated in 1958 to help speakers get rid of the usual after dinner butterflies, as he addressed the group at the Taney Inn Tuesday evening. Taneytown Lion Singleton Ramsburg was Roaring Lion president during the past year.

President Lewis Baer reminded the group of the crab and shrimp feed set for August 28. Lion Frank Dunham introduced Ivan Hillyer, a guest, and district awards were shown by Ken Shorb. A directors meeting followed the regular meeting.

were qualified to act as pilots.

SPACECRAFT SHOT

In great detail, he outlined the steps by which three U.S. astronauts are to be launched—by an advanced Saturn C5 rocket—some time before the end of this decade, in an Apollo spacecraft, into orbit around the moon.

Two of the spacemen will leave the Apollo craft in a small capsule, or "bug," to land on the moon.

Holmes said this country would be unable to launch two astronauts into simultaneous orbit because NASA has only one Mercury-Atlas launching pad.

CRAFT TOO SMALL

But, he added, NASA probably would not choose to do it with an Atlas booster even if it could. The Mercury spacecraft, he said, is considerably smaller than the Soviet Vostok spaceship and would not be able to support life as long as the Soviet craft.

Holmes said that Apollo spacemen who approach the moon in the "bug" will be able to change their minds about landing at the last moment should conditions on the moon appear to be too dangerous.

Should the "bug" lose its propellant power, he said, the two men would be able to escape from the capsule and grab lifelines to transfer back to the mother craft, which will be capable of going after them if they are in trouble.

DETACH BUG

Holmes said the "bug" would detach from the Apollo craft at an appropriate time when it is in orbit 100 miles above the moon. The two men would fly close to the lunar surface, hover a minute, and, if they wished, still could get back to the mother ship before it was out of sight.

The first Apollo mission will

MEDICAL HEAD URGES BROAD CARE OF AGED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The head of the state medical society has urged that the present state medical care program for the aged be broadened in scope.

Dr. Danie H. Bee, president of the medical society, told a Republican platform committee hearing here Friday that the program should be changed "to more adequately and humanely meet the needs of the state's elder citizens."

Bee recommended enactment of a state-supported medical insurance program for the needy, greater state aid to hospitals and decentralization of health and welfare services.

PREVIOUSLY REJECTED

The insurance program previously was rejected by the Department of Public Welfare as costly and impractical.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Smethport, chairman of the GOP platform committee said standards for the state's medical assistance to the aged program should be liberalized.

He specifically suggested the present state requirement that liens be placed against the estate of medical assistance recipients be done away with.

However Bee rejected that proposal.

WOMAN KILLED, 23 INJURED IN BUS ACCIDENT

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—A Greyhound bus slammed into the rear of a steel-laden truck on the Ohio Turnpike today, killing one woman and injuring at least 23 persons, four seriously.

The Turnpike Patrol said the bus, on its way from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, had passed a car and was pulling back into the outside lane when it collided with the semitractor-trailer. There were 27 aboard the bus.

The vehicles remained upright, but both westbound lanes of the toll road were strewn with wreckage and steel bars from the truck. Westbound traffic was at a standstill for almost two hours until work crews cleared the roadway. BUS PASSENGER KILLED

The dead woman, not immediately identified, was a passenger on the bus. Twelve of the injured were hospitalized. At least four were reported in poor condition.

Steve Amicarelli, 42, of Youngstown, the bus driver, received minor injuries. Calvin Lester, 33, of Pittsburgh, the truck driver, was not hurt. He was hauling a load of steel from Pittsburgh to Michigan.

The accident happened two miles east of the Streetsboro Interchange.

Dieterley waived to court charges of forgery, cheating by false pretense and conspiracy in connection with checks passed at Armistead's 5 and 10 and Kenzie's Market here and to a bad check charge and conspiracy in connection with a check for $38.43 cashed at Brough's Store, Bendersville.

BEAMER BACK TO JAIL

According to Dieterley, he and Beamer came to Gettysburg, and Beamer was asked to secure some checks. Beamer then, according to Dieterley, found "someone" who would sell five checks for $1. Dieterley said he told him to buy them.

Dieterley and Beamer were charged with passing three checks at Kenzie's Store. Dieterley however said that Beamer was with him only on July 26 when two checks were cashed at the market. On the next day, Dieterley said he came to Gettysburg looking for Beamer but cashed a check at Kenzie's Market before finding Beamer. As a result the one count of the three counts against Beamer in connection with the check passing at Kenzie's Market was dropped.

Beamer denied the accusations against him but was held for court and in default of $1,500 bail, $500 on each charge, was returned to jail.

FR. P. AUMEN FORMS PARISH

The Very Rev. Paul J. Aumen, a missionary priest of the Congregation of the Most Precious Blood Fathers in Chile, has succeeded in establishing a new parish in Valdivia after 10 months of negotiations with the Chilean government. Father Aumen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Aumen, Abbotstown R. 1.

Legal permission to purchase land and build, according to word received from Father Aumen, was withheld despite action of local authorities in donating the land at his request when he planned to set up a parish there in the spring of 1961.

Father Aumen has now received permission to build but civil authorities refuse to approve a loan necessary for the erection of a parish plant.

"Thus it is that the founding of the first parish in Chile dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus has reached the stage of a few acres of land and a church—that is, if you want to call a U. S. Army hospital tent a church," he writes.

Every Sunday Father Aumen celebrates three Masses in his church tent during which nearly 600 persons jam into the tent to join with him in the Holy Sacrifice.

G-BURG CADET

base, it provides the only period of concentrated military training which the cadets receive.

The course is of 28 days' duration, with normal duty hours from 4:45 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Each day is crowded with programmed activity which includes flying, orientation on Air Force functions, junior officer, survival and physical training.

PRIDE IN UNIT

Cadets take great pride in the discipline of their unit and the system of punishment for rule infractions, which is based on points. Demerits are charged to an individual for violations, and when a cadet receives a base number of demerits he must walk a tour at attention in a specified area on a weekend. Cadets are required to walk one tour of 25 minutes for each demerit over the base number.

If a cadet receives a merit for some outstanding action, five demerits are erased from his name. Walking a tour eliminates only one demerit.

As it turned out, President Kennedy's amnesty was a genuinely welcomed reprieve for many of the cadets who were destined to spend some of their free weekend hours walking tours.

CAMPOREE FOR SCOUTS, DADS

Final plans were announced today for the father and son camporee to be held by the Black Walnut Boy Scout District Saturday and Sunday at Camp Wolf Pit, one mile east of Aspers.

Camping will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning with registration. Because only those Scouts and Explorers accompanied by their fathers will be eligible for the encampment the registration will continue throughout the period and "anytime the father can be there, the son can be there," Merle E. Eisenhart, director of the encampment, said.

Lunch will be from 11 to 1. A Show and Do Scoutcraft program will be held from 1 to 4 at which the father will join the sons in learning about first aid, tying knots, lashing, etc. Swimming will be held from 4 to 6 and a campfire will be held at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

Sunday morning services will be held for the Protestants at the camp while the Catholics attend Mass in Gettysburg. Lunch will be from 12 to 2 p.m. At 3 p.m. a closing ceremony will be held. Milk will be sold at the camp site, Eisenhart said.

EX-CON SAYS HE KNOWS WHO ROBBED TRUCK

BOSTON (AP)—A published report today said a Rhode Island ex-convict claims to know who pulled off the $1.5 million mail robbery at Plymouth Tuesday. It said he wants to make a deal before he talks.

As the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston raised the amount of the nation's largest cash robbery by more than $50,000—to an official figure of $1,551,277—police circulated throughout the nation composite drawings of two of the white glove gang.

The composites bore striking resemblances to the notorious Bobby R. Wilcox, 32, formerly of Duke, Okla., and Albert F. Nussbaum, 27, wanted by the FBI for the murder of a Brooklyn, N.Y., bank guard.

CALL 60 INSPECTORS

Even with 60 postal inspectors gathered from as far distant as Pittsburgh and Miami, solving the crime would be a long, arduous process, said the nation's chief postal inspector, Henry B. Montague, 50, but he was confident the holdup would be cracked eventually.

The Boston Globe said the unidentified ex-convict, reported to be acquainted with some Rhode Island hoodlums, told Harrie C. Gill, Rhode Island State Police superintendent, he not only knows who did the robbery but "where they are right now."

Another published report said a Boston woman driving to Cape Cod Tuesday night saw a convertible headed north and a tan sedan going south exchange what appeared to be headlight signals—two short and one long flash—at about the time and place of the ambush near Plymouth.

Authorities offered no comment on the possible significance of the report.

PICK UP SUSPECT

Bernard Domanski, 45, of Central Falls, R.I., a former member of the Harvey Bistany bank robbery gang, was picked up in that state and questioned before being taken to Massachusetts State Prison at Walpole to serve time for parole violation. But Montague said neither Domanski nor anyone else could be said to be a suspect as of the moment.

The money, being shipped from Cape Cod banks to the Federal Reserve at Boston, was in registered mail pouches guarded only by the two-man crew of the mail van, armed with .38 caliber pistols.

Will Distribute Oral Polio Vaccine

Carroll County Junior Chamber of Commerce members are planning to assist in the distribution of oral polio vaccine to 32,800 persons in that county in October.

Under plans outlined by Dr. Donald Fisher, Carroll County health officer, at a meeting of Junior Chamber representatives Freedom and North Carroll Junior Chambers of Commerce at Westminster the Jaycees will handle publicity and assist with certain administrative details for the mass immunization to be given at six centers in Carroll County in October.

Woody Myers, a board member, represented the Taneytown Jaycees.

Red Guerrillas Loot Leper Colony

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communist Viet Cong guerrillas looted a leper colony at bayonet point Thursday night, taking all medicines plus the personal effects of seven nuns, the Catholic Relief Services reported today. The scene was St. Joseph's Ben San leprosarium 25 miles outside Saigon.

"WHEN PARTING"

Parting is a tender time . . . when memories take wing . . . recalling to the folks involved . . . happy songs to sing . . . when tears are mixed with laughter . . . laughter to instill new faith . . . tears for what comes after . . . it is a time of masquerade . . . when folks try hard to smile . . . doing everything they can . . . to somehow reconcile . . . but deep inside there's sorrow . . . that grates upon the heart . . . for no one likes the anguish . . . that comes when dear ones part . . . that's how it goes when parting . . . we drift to way back when . . . ending with the tender words . . . "till we meet again."

5 Americans

the right-wing Laotian government, Wolfkill was with them when their helicopter crashed behind Red lines May 15, 1961.

Ballenger had been missing since April 22, 1961, when four American military advisers were captured under circumstances the State Department has refused to divulge.

Bailey was captured when his plane crashed March 23, 1961.

PROMISED FREEDOM

Frigilliana, an Air American mechanic, disappeared in December 1960, during fighting between neutralist and right-wing forces for control of Vientiane.

Pathet Lao chief Prince Souphanouvong had promised their release following last month's Geneva accord, sanctioning a coalition government for Laos and pledging the country's neutrality.

A few minutes after the six men arrived, American military officials whisked Shore, McMorrow, Ballenger and Frigilliana away. Bailey and Wolfkill stayed behind to talk to newsmen.

FEARED OTHERS DIED

Bailey, 38, said he bailed out of a plane which was transporting seven other Americans before it crashed. Speaking with great difficulty, he said he did not know what went wrong with the plane and he was afraid all others aboard had died.

Bailey said when the Pathet Lao first captured him he was held in a house in eastern Sam Neua Province and given enough food. But for the past 11 months, he said, he was confined in a cell which had only a very small window.

Bailey said his captors never beat him, that the only maltreatment was continuous questioning.

MADE FORCED LANDING

Wolfkill, 39, said the helicopter, in which he was flying with Shore and McMorrow, made a forced landing at Ban Veung San, about 40 miles north of Vientiane.

"We made a hasty landing," he said, "and nobody aboard was hurt, thanks to Shore"—the 30-year-old pilot. McMorrow, 20, was the crew chief.

He said they left the helicopter in the jungle and without warning were surrounded by Pathet Lao troops.

The three of them were held for 11 months in a room which had no light in a place near Xieng Khouang, the Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plain des Jarres.

Wolfkill said they spent terrifying hours under the watchful eyes of young Mao tribesmen guards who, he added, "were full of hatred and roaming around with their rifles loaded and firing at random."

ATE RICE, SALT

Wolfkill said that for days they were given only rice and salt to eat.

"Our condition improved when we were moved last April 6 to a Viet Minh camp," also in the Xieng Khouang area, he continued.

did abide to international conventions for war prisoners," Wolfkill said.

Ten other Americans are known to have disappeared in Laos between December 1960 and March 1961. Six were believed killed in a plane crash, but there has been no information on the other four.

Gettysburg Elks played host to a group of 25 veterans from the Lebanon Veterans Hospital Thursday when they arrived here by bus to tour the battlefield. The veterans were guests of the local Elks lodge for lunch and dinner. The photograph shows a group of officials who made this 14th veterans' junket a memorable one. Pictured, first row, left to right, are G. Noel Flynn, local exalted ruler; Mrs. Judith Frederick of the Lebanon Hospital; Henry Levin, chairman of the district veterans committee, Lebanon.

HOUSE RUSHES BILL TO OPEN GI INSURANCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has rushed through a bill to reopen the GI insurance program to disabled veterans of World War II and the Korean War—but not to able-bodied ones.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where sentiment is strong for letting all 16 million veterans of the two wars apply for the government insurance, as the House bill originally provided.

Acting with a swiftness that caught most members unawares, the leadership called up the bill late Thursday, stripped it down to cover only 1.8 million veterans injured in military service, then recessed the House for 10 days.

HASTILY MOVED

The bill originally had been scheduled for action next week. It was hastily moved forward when a light legislative load presented a chance for a late-summer vacation.

The Veterans Administration has predicted only about 100,000 of the 1.8 million disabled veterans would apply for the insurance. They would get it at the rates that applied when the program was terminated Dec. 31, 1956, with $10,000 the maximum amount that could be purchased.

The program would be reopened for one year, beginning one year after enactment of the law.

Meeting Briefed On Roaring Lions

John McGee, cashier of the Skylesville, Md., Bank, briefed Taneytown Lions on the history and background of the Roaring Lions, a public speaking group initiated in 1958 to help speakers get rid of the usual after dinner butterflies, as he addressed the group at the Taney Inn Tuesday evening. Taneytown Lion Singleton Ramsburg was Roaring Lion president during the past year.

President Lewis Baer reminded the group of the crab and shrimp feed set for August 28. Lion Frank Dunham introduced Ivan Hillyer, a guest, and district awards were shown by Ken Shorb. A directors meeting followed the regular meeting.

O'CONNOR TO WED

BOSTON (AP)—Pulitzer prize-winning novelist Edwin O'Connor has filed intentions to wed Mrs. Venette C. Weil of Washington, D.C.

O'Connor, 44, listed his Boston address when filing marriage intentions Thursday at City Hall. He won the prize this year for his novel, "The Edge of Sadness." His "The Last Hurrah" was a best-seller several years ago.

Mrs. Kump was the former Miss Millie Lighner. They have three children, Mrs. Arthur Spangler, Gettysburg; Mrs. Paul Bankert, Hanover, and Miss Freda Kump, Pittsburgh. There are three grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

CICADA EYES RICH TRAVERS ON SATURDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cicada is a pert, leggy young miss who doesn't particularly like to chase boys. She'd much rather they chase her. And it could be that is exactly what will happen Saturday in the $75,000 added Travers Stakes at Saratoga.

A field of eight is expected to start in the 93rd running of the 1 1/4 mile test for 3-year-olds, with the filly Cicada and the colts Jaipur and Ridan the big three.

Christopher T. Chenery's Cicada, one of the top fillies of recent years, has won the Mother Goose, Acorn, Kentucky Oaks, Gardenia and Alabama, among others this year. She lost to Seven Thirty by a head in the Delaware and to Ridan by a nose in the Florida Derby.

WEIGHT ADVANTAGE

In the latter, however, she carried only five pounds less than Mrs. Maddy Jilley's big colt. This time Ridan and Jaipur each tote eight more than the filly, 126 to 118.

Ridan, winner of the Hibiscus,

Federal Funds Will Push State Program

HARRISBURG (AP)—The early release by the U.S. Department of Commerce of $149 million in federal highway funds will permit Pennsylvania to accelerate even further its road building program, Highway Secretary Park H. Martin said today.

The Commerce Department Wednesday released the funds, making them available for commitment nine months earlier than planned.

Martin said the release did not constitute additional federal funds.

The department estimates the acceleration of federal money will permit it to speed up contracts so that approximately $25 million in additional right-of-way acquisition and construction projects will be advertised by the end of this year.

Florida Derby, Blue Grass and Arlington Classic was upset in his last outing, the American Derby at Arlington, by Black Sheep.

George D. Widener's Jaipur, winner of the Jersey Derby and the Belmont, has had only one poor race this season in his bid for the 3-year-old title. He scored by four lengths over Cyane in his last outing.

Sales Meeting By Eddie's Cleaners

The monthly sales meeting of Eddie's Cleaners, Littlestown and Gettysburg, was held Wednesday evening at the Mark Stevens Restaurant, Hanover. All sales personnel were present.

Out of town speakers were Jack Guy, William Barnett Company, Washington, D. C.; Larry Porterfield, Ajax Machinery Company, Salt Lake City, Utah; Dick Frahm of Frahm Associates, Washington, D. C., and Edgar Howe of Hanover.

Miss Pat Grant of Frahm Associates, Washington, D. C., conducted the meeting.

were qualified to act as pilots.

SPACECRAFT SHOT

In great detail, he outlined the steps by which three U.S. astronauts are to be launched by an advanced Saturn C5 rocket—some time before the end of this decade, in an Apollo spacecraft, into orbit around the moon.

Two of the spacemen will leave the Apollo craft in a small capsule, or "bug," to land on the moon.

Holmes said this country would be unable to launch two astronauts into simultaneous orbit because NASA has only one Mercury-Atlas launching pad.

CRAFT TOO SMALL

But, he added, NASA probably would not choose to do it with an Atlas booster even if it could. The Mercury spacecraft, he said, is considerably smaller than the Soviet Vostok spacecraft and would not be able to support life as long as the Soviet craft.

Holmes said that Apollo spacemen who approach the moon in the "bug" will be able to change their minds about landing at the last moment should conditions on the moon appear to be too dangerous.

Should the "bug" lose its propellant power, he said, the two men would be able to escape from the capsule and grab lifelines to transfer back to the mother ship, which will be capable of going after them if they are in trouble.

DETACH BUG

Holmes said the "bug" would detach from the Apollo craft at an appropriate time when it is in orbit 100 miles above the moon. The two men would fly close to the lunar surface, hover a minute, and, if they wished, still could get back to the mother ship before it was out of sight.

The first Apollo mission will

MEDICAL HEAD URGES BROAD CARE OF AGED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The head of the state medical society has urged that the present state medical care program for the aged be broadened in scope.

Dr. Danie H. Bee, president of the medical society, told a Republican platform committee hearing here Friday that the program should be changed "to more adequately and humanely meet the needs of (the state's) elder citizens."

Bee recommended enactment of a state-supported medical insurance program for the needy, greater state aid to hospitals and decentralization of health and welfare services.

PREVIOUSLY REJECTED

The insurance program previously was rejected by the Department of Public Welfare as costly and impractical.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Smithport, chairman of the GOP platform committee said standards for the state's medical assistance to the aged program should be liberalized.

He specifically suggested the present state requirement that liens be placed against the estate of medical assistance recipients be done away with.

However Bee rejected that proposal.

Bridegroom Goes To Hospital Instead Of Reception: Miss Doris Faye Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Cleveland, R. 4, became the bride of Paul Richard Trussell, son of Paul H. Trussell, 217 Steinwehr Ave., in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, pastor of Zion Reformed Church, Arendtsville, in Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of the Gettysburg Church assisting. While relatives and friends were waiting outside the church after the ceremony Dr. Fox announced that the bridegroom had been taken ill and was being rushed to the hospital. He underwent an operation for appendicitis less than two hours after the wedding. A reception had been planned at the bride's home but was postponed and the bride's cake, which formed the centerpiece of the table, remained uncut for the present. The wedding trip was necessarily postponed likewise.

Orphanage Gets Money From Hartzell Will: A check for $20,056 has been turned over to officers of the Hoffman orphanage by David A. Tawney, executor of the will of Mrs. Anna Dustman Hartzell, who died here July 13, 1946. Mrs. Hartzell left a small bequest to Tawney, a friend and neighbor, and directed that the residue go to the George W. and Agnes Hoffman orphanage, to be used as a memorial to her husband, Samuel Hartzell, former battlefield guide here who died several years ago, and herself. It is likely that the money will be applied on the erection of a new building at the orphanage to be known as the Hartzell building. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hartzell were life-long residents of Gettysburg. Mrs. Hartzell's father, Henry Dustman, resided on Seminary Ridge at the time of the battle here.

State's Marriage Law Is Liberalized: A new marriage law is now in effect in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Emma Sheffer, Adams county clerk of the courts, said she has been informed, which allows persons to obtain marriage licenses and be married in any court in the state. Mrs. Sheffer said that the old law required that in the case of out-of-state residents who applied for marriage licenses, they be married in the county where the license was issued.

Cole Flower Shop Will Close: The Cole Flower Shop on Chambersburg Street will close, Sterling Cole, proprietor, announced today. The Tot Shoppe, operated by Mrs. H. C. Albright, on York street, will move to the storeroom vacated by the Flower Shop in September, after remodeling has taken place. Lane's Photo Studio will move into the store-room now occupied by the Tot Shoppe, which has been occupied by them for the past eight years.

Miss Barbehenn To Wed: Miss Edna Barbehenn, Ephrata, daughter of the late George W. Barbehenn, of Orttanna and Gettysburg, will be married at Ephrata to Frank Hower of that town, it was learned today. Miss Barbehenn attended the Gettysburg schools and was employed for a number of years at the G. C. Murphy company store here before moving to Loysville about two years ago. Since then she has moved to Ephrata where she is employed in the Harris Department store. Mr. Hower is employed at an ice cream manufacturing plant at Ephrata.

Sells Farm: Miss Margaret W. McIlhenny, Lincolnway West, has sold her 19-acre farm in Cumberland township to Mrs. Anna Bryman, Glen Ridge, Essex County, N. J. Possession will be given October 1. The sale was made by John C. Bream.

OH, THE RAIN

I have never disliked rainy days I love them! And I love them more as the years pile up. There is real beauty to the rain. It freshens everything, including the spring in one's heart.

I like to walk in the rain. I like to feel the slap of the drops upon my cheeks I like the contact that is aroused and akinship to the forces of Nature. Those drops. Where did they come from? Perhaps from far away lakes, rivers, or the ocean itself. Perhaps some colony West on the old Katalysine Springs property, is being completed today and will impound an estimated 1,000,000 gallons of water, according to Richard A. Brown, president of the board of directors of the club. The new dam is 50 feet wide and extends 250 feet from bank to bank. It will gather from a 55-acre watershed, from the springs and from small tributaries, and when filled will measure more than 1,000 feet back from the breast of the dam. The lake will form the primary source of water for watering the greens and Mr. Brown said more than a mile of pipe is being laid for this purpose. It is expected if the coming winter is favorable that the greens and fairways will be in shape for actual play by May 1 next year. Plans are being prepared and will be submitted soon for remodeling and enlarging the stone building on the property which will be used as a clubhouse.

of them came from little brooks that emptied their hearts long ago far up in the mountains.

And what joy the rain brings, too. Gardens, with their multitudes of flowers, smile their happiest after the rain, and all nature is so sweet and fresh—the morning after. And the sun reaches so close to the earth after the rain has had its play.

The gray coloring of a rainy night, with its interlacing of yellow lights from windows, street lamps, and moving vehicles, is an inspiring sight. And the creeping lights from lighted store windows all along the extending streets add such a romantic glow while the rain is falling.

In past years I have often watched the storm in the mountains when at camp. It was a wonderful sight. I have watched the rain approach from far across the great lake and then met its sudden run to my very feet.

Meditation seems so much finer while the rain is on. The complexities of life do not seem so strange. The rainy day doesn't sadden me, as it does so many. I wish it saddened none. Why it should anyone, I am at a loss to know!

The rain drops are so clean and fresh. They must be made of a marvelous substance, else they would not take the exquisite form they do when they fall like tiny feathers during the months of the northern winters, in flakes of stars in snow.

SEES NO NEED TO CHANGE U.S. SPACE PLANS

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara sees no reason why the United States should alter its carefully charted space plans because of the Soviet Union's spectacular double orbit.

It can be said authoritatively that McNamara does not feel there is reason to be concerned about the military implications of this latest Soviet experiment.

He does not believe that changes should be considered in either the U.S. military or space programs as a result of the double orbit feat.

Like McNamara, U.S. civilian space officials say they see no need to change their space program. James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration told a Wednesday news conference that the current program is fast paced.

SOME VIEWS DIFFER

Webb said the United States could gain time in the race to the moon if it shifted to a crash effort like the one that produced the first atomic bomb. But he said it would cost more money and "undoubtedly cut into the military program."

Associates said McNamara wasn't surprised at the latest Soviet space feat. The Soviets didn't do anything that he hadn't anticipated.

McNamara's view that no changes are needed will come as a disappointment to certain Air Force officers who advocated a bigger and broader American space effort in the military field.

MINN. D.A. IS HONORED FOR LONG SERVICE

By GEORGE ESPER
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"My philosophy has been," said Edward Rogers, "I'm a county attorney and I'm in a better position to help others or the state."

The National District Attorneys Association conference took note of this Thursday when they honored Rogers for 46 years of distinguished service as county attorney of Cass County, Minn.

"I had to start in from scratch," Rogers told the group in accepting his plaque. "The first thing I learned was the state was interested in justice. There are two sides to every question. A complaint is just what the word indicates. It does not mean one accused is guilty. Investigate every case thoroughly."

HIS SWAN SONG

Later the 86-year-old Rogers said in an interview that "I like to feel this honor came to me because of nearly half a century of devotion to the principle of fair play in the office of attorney for the state."

In a way it was his swan song, for he plans to return to private practice the first of the year. "It's getting too much work for me," he explained. "In private work I can take things easier." Rogers, a native of neighboring Aitken County, Minn., is a Republican and was elected to office 12 straight terms, the first term for two years, the others for four.

CARLISLE PRODUCT

His mother was an American Indian, Chippawa, and he attended the Carlisle, Pa., Indian training school of the century and the Dickinson College Preparatory School. Then he went back to the University of Minnesota Law School where he earned his law degree, waiting on tables to pay his expenses.

Rogers was captain of the 1900 Carlisle football team which Pop Warner coached. In 1904 he coached a year at Carlisle, following Warner, and his team dropped only two games.

"I always liked law," said Rogers in looking back. "It was fairly easy."

But today, he concedes, law is a lot tougher. "Laws are more complex," he said. "You can't step out of the house now or your liable to get into trouble. Every time a legislature meets 400 or 500 laws are passed, and Congress, too."

"Before we used to know some law. Now it seems we don't know any. Personally, if they quit passing laws for a couple of years I think we'd get along a lot better. Everyone is trying always to think up something new. I think there's plenty on the book to take care of everyone for a little while."

SAFETY ON GROUND

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency is bringing its safety campaign down to the ground.

Roy Keeley, area coordinator for the FAA here, said all automobiles owned and operated by the agency in the southern region will be equipped with seat belts.

President Kennedy has proclaimed Monday, Oct. 1, as Child Health Day for 1962.

Kennedy declared that children are "our nation's most priceless resource and most cherished responsibility."

County's Top 4-H Winners At PSU

Adams County's 4-H flower identification team, which won state championship honors at the annual state 4-H Days on the Pennsylvania State University campus this week, left to right: Diana Bricker, York Springs R. 1; Carolyn Hook, Gettysburg R. 1; Martha Hikes, York Springs R. 2, and Martha Bowman, 217 N. Oxford Ave., McSherrystown. The team will receive a plaque from the Dauphin County Adult Extension Garden Clubs and the high individual judge, Miss Bowman, will receive a medal from the Pennsylvania Nurserymen Association.

Barbara Johnson, Gettysburg R. 1, state winner in the vegetable preparation demonstration contest with her display "Any Time Is Salad Time." She will compete in a national contest at Miami in December. She also was a blue ribbon winner in foods and nutrition.

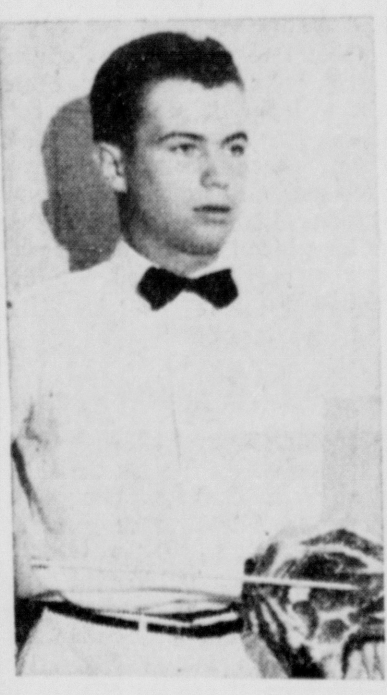

Shirley Ann Bair, Littlestown, was a top state award winner in the beef club section of the 4-H Days competition.

Debbie Swope, Gettysburg, was a state winner in the "horse category" with a display on the English bridle and its uses.

Paul Middour, York Springs R. 1, was a Keystone award winner in field crops.

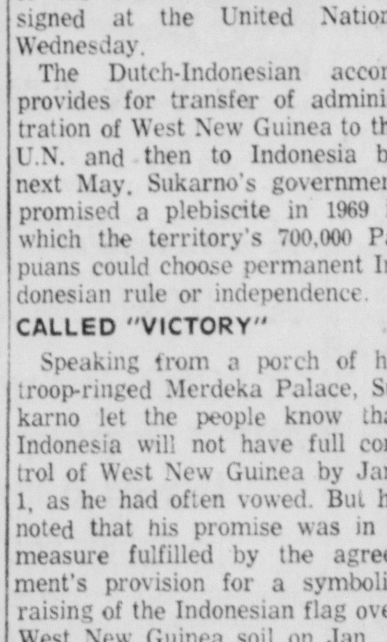

David Lott, Gettysburg R. 4, won a state title in the miscellaneous demonstrations category. His subject was "The New Dual Grading System."

Mary Anna Biesecker, Cash-town, who was selected as one of the three best judges of home management and furnishings.

Mary Jane Bowman, McSherrystown, was a Keystone award winner in home economics. She was also chosen as one of the three best 4-H judges of foods and nutrition.

Karsten Prager, Jakarta, Indonesia (AP)—President Sukarno told his people today of the Dutch agreement to hand over West New Guinea and declared Indonesia's other problems can now be solved "as we go along."

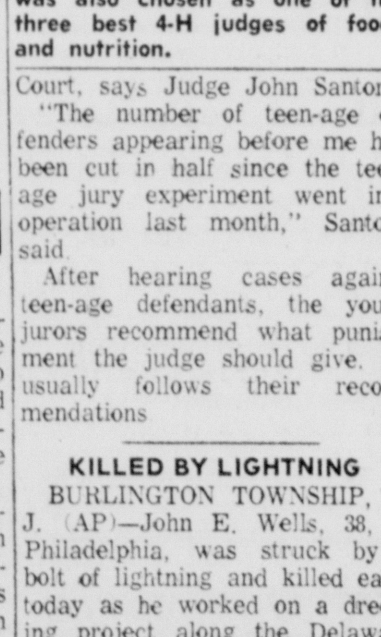

Sukarno also laid the groundwork for improved relations with Indonesia's former colonial masters in a speech on Indonesia's 17th anniversary of its declaration of independence from the Netherlands. His speech was the government's first official announcement of the Dutch-Indonesian accord signed at the United Nations Wednesday.

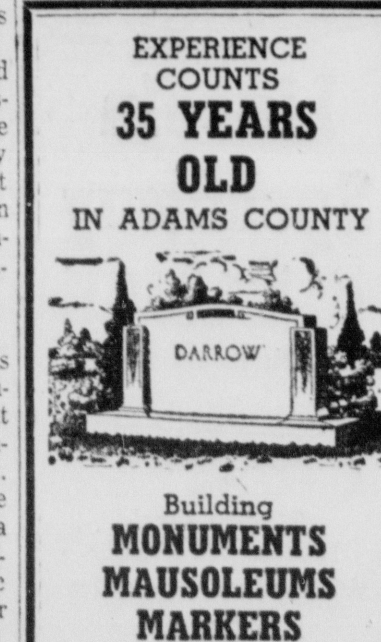

Carol Rex, Biglerville R. 1, captured a Keystone state award in the division of gardening and entomology.

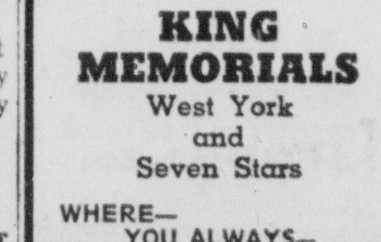

Stanley C. Lowicki, assistant U.S. attorney, said Chamberlain posed as an officer of two plastics firms with which he had no official connection and induced people to invest in the plastics firms which were unaware of Chamberlain's activities.

Lowicki said Chamberlain would persuade investors to buy through him 50 shares in one of the companies—S & C Manufacturing Co., of Cincinnati and Industrial Plastics Fabricators of Norwood, Mass. Lowicki said Chamberlain would buy five shares, alter the certificates with chemicals to read 50 shares and then return the certificates to the investor.

Chamberlain promised investors a return of nine per cent in dividends, Lowicki said. When the investor received a dividend on five shares Chamberlain explained this was a special dividend and the nine per cent dividend on 50 shares would follow, Lowicki said, adding that Chamberlain then paid the dividend out of his own pocket.

Lowicki said 19 persons in four states—Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts—were defrauded, including Chamberlain's brother, Paul R., president of S & C, who lost $18,000.

SUSQUEHANNA RIVER SURVEY BEING SOUGHT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., said today he hopes to arrange within two weeks a meeting of members of Congress from Pennsylvania, New York and Maryland to discuss plans for a survey of water resources and development potentialities of the Susquehanna River watershed.

The purpose, Flood said, is to form a unified group to secure final approval of the survey project.

Also invited to the session, Flood said, will be Army engineers.

FUNDS OKAYED

The House Appropriations Committee this week included in its approval of a public works bill a $300,000 appropriation for initiating the Susquehanna River survey project.

Flood told a newsmen this will be a continuing project with an anticipated cost of about $2 million or so over a six-year period until the comprehensive survey—the first ever made in the history of the Susquehanna River basin—is completed.

The survey will look into flood control, water pollution, reforestation, irrigation, recreation possibilities, hydroelectric power possibilities, navigation and canalization.

JURY INDICTS WEST CHESTER MAN FOR FRAUD

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A federal grand jury Thursday indicted Kenneth P. Chamberlain, 55, of West Chester, Pa., for using the mails to defraud investors out of $320,000 during a 17-year period.

Stanley C. Lowicki, assistant U.S. attorney, said Chamberlain posed as an officer of two plastics firms with which he had no official connection and induced people to invest in the plastics firms which were unaware of Chamberlain's activities.

Lowicki said Chamberlain would persuade investors to buy through him 50 shares in one of the companies—S & C Manufacturing Co., of Cincinnati and Industrial Plastics Fabricators of Norwood, Mass. Lowicki said Chamberlain would buy five shares, alter the certificates with chemicals to read 50 shares and then return the certificates to the investor.

DIVIDEND RETURN

Chamberlain promised investors a return of nine per cent in dividends, Lowicki said. When the investor received a dividend on five shares Chamberlain explained this was a special dividend and the nine per cent dividend on 50 shares would follow, Lowicki said, adding that Chamberlain then paid the dividend out of his own pocket.

Lowicki said 19 persons in four states—Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts—were defrauded, including Chamberlain's brother, Paul R., president of S & C, who lost $18,000.

Lowicki said the fraud was uncovered when one of the investors received a dividend less than expected and wrote directly to the company. The investor, a stenographer, found she had fewer shares than she thought.

The charges cover the period between Sept. 23, 1945, and last Jan. 17.

DILWORTH HAS BUSY DAY AT WASHINGTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Richardson Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor meets with the Executive Council and Legislative Committee of the Pennsylvania State Education Association today following a busy day of activity in Washington and Lancaster, Pa.

In Lancaster Thursday night Dilworth again attacked his Republican opponent Rep. William W. Scranton, saying he "won't commit himself on a single issue."

At the same time Dilworth, who had visited the nation's capital earlier, disclosed in Lancaster that President Kennedy's administration is considering locating a new federal penitentiary in Western Pennsylvania.

LUNCH WITH LAWRENCE

Dilworth and his running mate, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, seeking a second six-year term in the Senate, had lunch with Gov. David Lawrence then visited Kennedy to talk about their campaigns and to pose with him for photographs.

Dilworth declined to say whether they asked Kennedy to campaign for the ticket in Pennsylvania. He said any such announcement would have to come from the White House. Kennedy has scheduled an appearance at a campaign dinner at Harrisburg Sept. 20. But the Democrats hope they can get him for other dates.

Otis B. Morse, Democratic state chairman, also was in Washington Thursday to visit John Bailey, the Democratic national chairman. Morse reported that Bailey said he would try to make available Democratic leaders including Kennedy for speeches in the Pennsylvania campaign.

After leaving the White House, Dilworth said he believes prospects for Democratic victory in Pennsylvania in the fall are "definitely moving up." Earlier he said that he, Clark and Lawrence "agreed we're going to win."

Jersey Night Club Destroyed By Fire

EWING TOWNSHIP, N.J. (AP)—Fire swept the El Condado night club on River Road here early today.

Police said the club, a popular dining, dancing and entertainment center, was "pretty well burnt down."

The first word of the fire came after closing time at 4:11 a.m., and police said there were no patrons in the club. No injuries have been reported in the blaze, police said.

Fire companies from West Trenton, Pennington Road, Prospect Heights, Titusville and Yardley, Pa., responded to the alarm, police said.

H. Linn of Pittsburgh, an independent producer, Linn said it was the 20th oil well on the property, but the first in many years.

The Pittsburgh producer said the gusher could mark an important breakthrough. He said the hydro-fracture process shows promise of reopening the Venango Oil Sands as a major source of Pennsylvania crude oil.

Division B All-Stars
Blues, 51; Reds, 49, overtime.

The Paratroopers won the championship of Division A in the Rec Basketball League Thursday evening by edging the Astronauts 37-35 in a thrilling, well-played game. Goals by Ron Doaks and Bill Sanni and a pair of free throws by Sanni gave the winners the close margin of victory in the final frame. Nelson, Bushey and Jones tallied goals in the last period for the Astronauts but were unable to push through the necessary remaining two points. Sanni was the big gun for the winners as he rammed through 25 tallies while Nelson paced the losers with 16 points.

Finkboner came through with two goals and a pair of charity tosses in the first overtime to pace the Blues to an exciting 51-49 decision over the Reds in the Division B all-star game.

With the count tied 45-45 at the end of the regulation four quarters, the Blues won out in the overtime on the strength of Finkboner's six tallies. Greiner and Keefer accounted for a pair of goals for the Reds. Finkboner topped the Blues with 21 points while Deitz netted the same number for the Reds.

Phils Get Coker From Air Force

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jim Coker, Philadelphia Phillies catcher who has been in the Air Force since Nov. 17, 1961, will rejoin the club on Aug. 26. Coker notified Phillies' officials Thursday he will be discharged at Tinker Air Force Base Oklahoma City.

Meanwhile, Shortstop Rueben Amaro was expected to miss the series in Pittsburgh opening tonight because of a sprained right ankle he suffered against New York Wednesday.

SWIMMERS SET RECORDS AT CHICAGO MEET

By DICK CICCONE

CHICAGO (AP) — "I really didn't know I was going that fast, but I wanted to break the record," commented 16-year-old Carolyn House, whose 18:44.0 performance in the 1500-meter freestyle Thursday frosted a record breaking opening day of the National AAU Women's Outdoor Swimming Championships.

Murray Rose, Australia's 1956 and 1960 Olympic champion, cracked the listed American 400-meter freestyle record and a U.S. 200-meter freestyle relay team bettered an American mark set in 1935 in the men's international invitational.

Today's schedule promises another day of record-smashing as Robyn Johnson, 16, Arlington, Va., goes after the 100-meter freestyle title she won last year.

BACK FOR TITLES

Jean Delekamp of the Indianapolis Athletic Club returns to defend her 200-meter breaststroke title; Nina Harmer of Philadelphia will defend her 200-meter backstroke crown and Barbara McAllister shoots for Joel Lenzi's 3-meter diving crown.

In what may be the day's top race, Donna De Varona, the darling of the 1960 Olympic team, defends her world record in the 400-meter medley.

Miss House, in successfully defending her 1500-meter title, topped a world mark of 19:02.8 held by Sweden's Margareta Rylander, set in Upsala, Sweden in 1961.

PUSHED TO RECORD

The blonde Los Angeles lass was pushed to her record peak by teammate Sharon Finne-man, 16, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club who also bettered Miss House's listed American mark of 19:45.0.

Rose, the 23-year-old water marvel, splashed through the Portage Park pool in 4:16.1 erasing for the second time in a week the listed American mark of 4:17.5 by Japan's Tsuyoshi Yamanka. Rose was timed in 4:17.2 at last week's men's nationals. The world mark is 4:15.9 by Jon Konrads at Sydney, Australia in 1960.

In the 200-meter freestyle relay, the U.S. "A" team of Steve Clark, Santa Clara; Ray Padavon, Southern Illinois University; Dick McDonough, Villanova, and Steve Jackman, Minnesota, ripped the water in a remarkable 1:37.1, topping a 1:44.0 set by a U.S. team 27 years ago in Osaka, Japan.

Meanwhile, Shortstop Rueben Amaro was expected to miss the series in Pittsburgh opening tonight because of a sprained right ankle he suffered against New York Wednesday.

MISS FLINCHBAUGH

The Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, Littlestown, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Ronald Leon Crouse, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, Littlestown R. 1. Both Miss Flinchbaugh and Mr. Crouse are graduates of Littlestown Senior High School and are attending Catawba College in Salisbury, N. C.

A wedding is being planned for September.

The Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh is the pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ in Littlestown.

STAGG GOES TO HIS BIRTHDAY PARTY IN CALIF.

By HAROLD V. STREETER
STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Century-old Amos Alonzo Stagg's strength is fading. But he still has all his courage.

The man who for 70 years coached thousands of college boys emerged from hospital confinement Thursday night to appear at one of the 12 parties held across the nation in honor of his 100th birthday Thursday.

Stagg, who was born before football was played in the United States, started coaching it in 1890 and quit reluctantly at 90, two years ago, is but a shadow of himself. Cataracts over both eyes have nearly blinded him. His once proudly erect body is stooped. His mind is alert at times; again it wanders.

MESSAGES FROM NOTABLES

But he knew, from the influx of old friends and former players, from the telegrams read to him by his 87-year-old wife — from President Kennedy, from Herbert Hoover, from Richard M. Nixon — that big things were stirring.

Nurses at his convalescent hospital, where he has been confined since February, had feared even the short trip downtown to the Civic Auditorium by car might be too much for him.

"Shortly after 8 o'clock there was a hush, a gasp and then a bedlam of handclapping and cheers among the 370 birthday celebrants, including California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

WIFE WITH HIM

Through a doorway Stagg came, between his beloved Stella, his wife for 58 years, and his son, Paul, athletic director at University of the Pacific. His step was slow. His frail body trembled. His face was drawn and solemn. But he walked on his own. No help, until he reached the step to the speaker's platform.

Dazed but determined, Stagg sat down while the crowd broke into a happy birthday song and a three-foot high cake was wheeled in, 100 lighted candles glittering.

While praise was heaped upon him he sat as if scarcely aware of what was going on. There were anxious, whispered conferences with his wife and son. They wanted him to go back to the hospital but Brig. Gen. Lawrence Whiting, another of his bygone Chicago Maroon gridiron greats, was speaking. Stagg insisted on waiting.

THERE 30 MINUTES

When Whiting sat down, eager hands lifted up Stagg and led him gently to a wheelchair. The crowd watched in admiring awe as the courageous old battler was wheeled away.

He had spent about 30 minutes in the hall.

Today, back in the hospital, Stella, his faithful twice-daily visitor, begins reading piecemeal to him the some 1,000 letters and

OKAY $112,000 FOR JURY PROBE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mayor James H. J. Tate has signed a City Council passed bill appropriating $112,000 to finance a special grand jury probe of alleged city hall scandals during the administration of former Democratic Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

Tate, a Democrat, took the action Thursday immediately after the Democratic-controlled council passed the bill by an 11-2 vote.

Thus the way was open for the grand jury to begin taking testimony Sept. 5.

Also the mayor's signature meant that eight employees of Prosecutor W. Wilson White's staff who have gone payless for two weeks will receive their first checks today.

Councilmen William A. Dwyer and Thomas McIntosh, both Democrats, voted against the measure. Dwyer had filed a petition asking that White, a Republican be ousted as prosecutor but he later withdrew it.

Musial Says Most Batters Seek Hits

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—One of the great hitters in the game today says National League batters are not swinging for fences this season as they have in other years since the advent of Babe Ruth.

"I know there are still a lot of homers being hit, more than ever before maybe, but I've seen more hitters this year just trying to get good wood on the ball than I've seen for a long time," Stan Musial said Thursday.

The Cardinal hitter, who across 20 years in the majors has always termed himself a singles hitter but boids and threatens many slugging records, said he thought the larger ball parks were the biggest reason for the new trend.

Favor Vickie Palmer To Retain Net Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Defending champion Vickie Palmer of Phoenix, Ariz., was a big favorite to hold her title as she moved into the semifinals today of the National Girls 18 and under Tennis Championships against Andrea Miller of San Carlos, Calif.

Miss Palmer Thursday eliminated Lynn Haines of Dallas, Tex., 6-2, 6-3.

In re: Application No. Term, 1962
Gettysburg Youth Center, a nonprofit corporation

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the above Court on the 24th day of August, 1962, at 10:00 a.m., E.D.S.T., for the purpose of obtaining a charter of a proposed nonprofit organization to be organized under the nonprofit organization law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania approved May 5, 1953, as amended.

The name of the proposed corporation is Gettysburg Youth Center. The purposes for which it is to be organized are as follows:

1. To provide guidance for teenagers.
2. To provide a place to gain perspective of adolescence.
3. To provide an opportunity to express interests among their own age.
4. To provide a center with the proper atmosphere and supervision in which they may spend their leisure time.
5. To provide adequate recreational opportunities for teenagers.
6. To lead to the development of leadership responsibilities and interest in community affairs.
7. To help develop good habits for better every day living.
8. To learn to meet people.
9. To develop social culture.
10. To overcome shyness and self-consciousness.
11. To endeavor to raise the social standards of youth in the community.
12. To provide entertainment in an educational way.
13. To fulfill the broad basic leisure needs of teenagers.
14. To cooperate with sponsoring organizations.
15. To use our own facilities instead of school facilities which usually conflict.

The Articles of Incorporation have been filed in the Office of the Prothonotary of Adams County, Pennsylvania.

JFK SAYS U.S. IS IN RACE WITH A CHALLENGE IN S.D. TALK

PIERRE, S.D. (AP)—President Kennedy declared today the nation is entering a decade of crisis and "we cannot afford inefficiency and waste. We cannot afford endless debate and delay."

Standing beside South Dakota's vast Oahe Dam—the first stop in a weekend swing through the West—Kennedy pictured the country as in a race with a challenge.

And he urged in his prepared address that all parts of the economy pull together or else "the American people will be the losers."

5TH MISSOURI DAM

Said Kennedy: "If the railroads prevent coal slurry pipelines from conveying the resources of our mines—if the mining interests prevent the use of nuclear energy for public and private transmission—if public and private power interests veto each other's progress, or if one region refuses to permit another to share in its abundance—then we shall be entering a decade of challenge and crisis with an incalculable, vulnerable attitude of waste."

Kennedy noted that the Oahe Dam was the fifth of six great dams to control the mainstream of the Missouri River and to generate electrical power to nine states.

And he said, "The key to this century is power—power on the farm as well as the factory—power in the country as well as the city."

ON TO CALIFORNIA

From here Kennedy flies further west, to Pueblo, Colo., and Merced, Calif., to look at more water projects and at least take a peek at the political picture.

The White House calls Kennedy's trip nonpolitical and the government is thus picking up the tab. But the President also has his eyes on the senatorial contests in South Dakota and Colorado and the race for governor between former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

In his speech here today Kennedy dropped a plug for old friend George McGovern, former food for peace director, saying he had served ably in the job.

Democrat McGovern is facing Republican Sen. Joe Bottom in SOUTH DAKOTA'S SENATE RACE. BUSY SCHEDULE

The formal objective of Kennedy's weekend journeying back and forth across the continent was visits to the $345-million Oahe dam and power plant on the Missouri River just north of Pierre, the $170-million Arkansas-Fryingpan water project in Colorado, and a dynamite-powered ground breaking for the $511-million San Luis dam and canal system in California's San Joaquin Valley.

The President does his San Luis speaking and dynamite firing chores Saturday, at the dam site west of Los Banos.

He flies to Castle Air Force Base at Merced this afternoon, whirled by helicopter to beautiful Yosemite Valley to spend the night, and takes the chopper again in the morning to Los Banos.

NIXON TERRITORY

The helicopter will backtrack to Fresno, where Kennedy will make a few remarks at the airport before boarding his jetliner and winging down to Los Angeles.

Aides said Kennedy had no official activity slated for Los Angeles—only some time with his sister, Patricia, and her husband, actor Peter Lawford, at their Santa Monica home.

Los Angeles is the home port of Nixon. And there probably isn't anyone Kennedy would rather see take another political licking than the man he barely kept out of the White House in 1960. Consequently, California has been tabbed for some outright political activity on Kennedy's part later in the campaign.

WORLD'S BIGGEST

On this trip, though, Gov. Brown has a prominent role among the Kennedy wellcomers and in the San Luis ground-breaking ceremonies, and this isn't calculated to do him harm in what is regarded widely as the top political bout of 1962. A Brown victory would just about mean the end of Nixon as a major political figure—and as a potential challenger of Kennedy again in 1964.

South Dakota's Oahe Dam, the first stop today, is the world's biggest packed-earth dam. One of six in the $5.8-billion Missouri River Basin development project, its reservoir will flood 250 miles up the Missouri. Flood control, power production, irrigation and navigation are the major purposes of the project.

CURTIS STILL LOSING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Curtis Publishing Co. reported today a second quarter loss of more than $4 million dollars and said business may get worse in the third period before picking up.

Matthew J. Culligan, the new president, who disclosed the second period deficit said the third quarter may produce a deficit of between $5 million and $6 million but four-quarter results will be "dramatically improved." He said it's too early to say whether Curtis will show a profit in the final quarter.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

SWEET TALK. A lovely asks: How can I be sure that my breath is sweet? This bothers me. For all those so bothered, this answer.

Mouth odors stem from many factors. Among them count physical disturbances, dental cavities and certain gum disorders. Of course everybody knows about onions and garlic.

But the overwhelming cause is incorrect toothbrush techniques. Just brushing is not enough. The teeth should be brushed with a proper dentifrice in the morning, at bedtime, and after every meal or snack when feasible.

The approved technique is this: Brush from the gum to the biting surface, inside and out; work crosswise on the biting surfaces. Thereafter rinse with warm water, or a half teaspoon of salt in a glass of water, or with a commercial mouthwash.

That routine is more than a means to clean breath. It goes a long way to prevent cavities, which undermine the health of the teeth as well as the breath's wholesomeness. You see, the entire thing is a sort of round-robin.

Modern science has gone to work to make the toothbrush, of itself, more effective. For example, there are double-action brushes. At one end this type has a rubber tip which is used for a health-giving gum massage and to dislodge harmful, bacteria-laden food particles. The brush head, on the other end, is scientifically scaled to reach all tooth surfaces. For convenience, the brush is sized to fit standard racks.

Since a mature woman has major difficulties from infirm gums, she would do well to ask her dentist about the massage-brush process.

AFTER THE STORMS

Through days of trial we have fared
And much we thought was wrong.
But all the days when we've despaired
Have never lasted long.

We've seen some fond hopes blown away,
We've heard our prayers denied,
We've lived through many a doubtful day
When we were trouble-ried.

We've dreaded, trembled, sighed and feared
Known grief and loss and pain,
But Time the dark gray skies has cleared
And we have smiled again.

And here we sit at peace tonight
Both calmer, wiser grown,
Living and loving still in spite
Of all the cares we've known.

Must Cut Spending Van Zandt Declares

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Rep. James E. Van Zandt, R-Pa., the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, says he favors a federal tax cut but only if it is accompanied by reduction in federal spending.

Van Zandt made the statement in a prepared text released to newsmen. But he was unable to deliver the address Thursday, arriving here too late because of business in Washington.

He was able, however, to greet some of those attending the Lancaster County Women's Republican Club picnic where he was to have delivered the speech.

In his prepared text, Van Zandt said that mounting deficit spending by the Kennedy Administration can lead "only to collapse of the nation's economy."

PUBLIC SALE

Valuable Battlefield Real Estate
Original Antiques From Meade's Headquarters and Other Personal Property

Junction Gettysburg-Baltimore State Highway and Slocum Avenue

5:30 O'clock P.M., August 23, 1962

The undersigned, executrices of the last will and testament of Ada M. Leister, late of Cumberland Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania, will offer at public sale on the premises, the late home of the decedent, situate at the intersection of the Gettysburg-Baltimore State Highway, U. S. Route 140, with the U. S. Avenue on Gettysburg Battlefield leading to Culp's Hill and known as Slocum Avenue; also a residence situate along Route 140 just south of the home place; the sale to be held at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening, August 23, 1962.

The late home property, Tract No. 1, extends for a distance of 204.8 feet along the State Highway and 215.4 feet along Slocum Avenue. It is improved with a two-story stone and frame house, the stone house portion being an old pre-Civil War home. This property joins the Cemetery Hill section of the Battlefield, is one of very few remaining sites in the historical development area and has outstanding possibilities for museum, motel or other commercial purposes.

Tract No. 2 includes a two-story, six-room and bath frame house with all conveniences including a gas furnace and is in good condition. The lot has a frontage of 90 feet on the State Highway, is 200 feet or more in depth and is 178 feet wide in the rear.

At the same time and place the executrices will offer for sale the household goods of the decedent including the bedstead occupied by General Meade in Leister House, preserved as Meade's Headquarters, and a corner cupboard and a cradle which also were in Meade's Headquarters during the battle. A shell struck a drawer of the cupboard during the battle and a portion of the knob was knocked off. They were owned by Lydia Study Leister, great-grandmother of the undersigned executrices, the then owner of Leister House, and have been preserved in the family ever since the Battle of Gettysburg. Other items of furniture to be sold include bedroom, dining room and kitchen furnishings and equipment, beds, bedding, chests of drawers, complete dining room set, tables, rugs, lamps, refrigerator and other items of electrical equipment for the kitchen, old dishes, cooking utensils and many other articles too numerous to mention.

The purchaser of each tract of real estate will pay 15% of the purchase price in cash at the time of sale and the balance on or before September 24, 1962. All personal property will be sold for cash. Other terms and conditions will be made known at the time of sale.

FBI ARRESTS 3 FOR THEFTS OF SECURITIES

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI announced the arrests Thursday of three men—two in Texas and one in Philadelphia—in its crackdown on securities thefts.

H. G. Foster, agent in charge of the New York FBI office, said two were seized in connection with the theft of $815,000 in U.S. government bonds reported stolen last year from the Burlington County, N.J., residence of a man identified as Israel Greenberg.

The third arrest, the FBI said, was in connection with transportation across state lines of $3,000 in U.S. Treasury bonds reported stolen last December from the Wall Street brokerage firm of Suro Brothers.

THOSE ARRESTED

Arrested in Houston, Tex., was Chester Zochowski, also known as Chester Gray, 38, of Miami, Fla., and Allen Eli Wright, 40, of Laurel, Miss.

Edward Hugh Wuensche, 34, of Holland, Pa., was picked up in Philadelphia and charged in both the Greenberg and Suro cases.

In both cases, Wuensche was charged with illegally transporting the bonds.

Wuensche was arrested last week in the Suro case. He was scheduled for a hearing in that case early Thursday but it was deferred a week.

Thursday night he was arraigned in connection with the Greenberg case.

Of their first 18 victories in 1962, the Los Angeles Angels won 14 by three runs or less.

Dozens Of Tasty Ways To Use Peach; List Of Recipes

By HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

There are few fruits that are as much enjoyed as the peach. There are dozens of possible ways to use the peach, too. Each year at the Peach Dessert Contest, girls 15-21 prepare a wide variety of dishes using the choice, well ripened, locally grown product. This year's contest will be at the Biglerville Bank meeting room on Friday, August 17. Peach pies, peach upside down cakes and peach cobbler have been winning entries in recent years. Recipes for a few of these delicious peach desserts follow.

Fluffy peach chiffon pie: Crust: 20 graham crackers, crushed, 1/4 cup butter, 1/4 cup sugar, Method: Melt butter and mix with sugar and crackers. Save 1/4 cup of mixture for topping, arrange remaining mixture in a nine-inch pie plate, using finger to spread evenly. Bake in a moderate oven eight minutes. Filling: 3/4 cup sugar, two cups diced, fresh peaches, one envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1/2 cup hot peach juice, one tablespoon lemon juice, dash salt, 1/2 cup heavy cream — whipped. Method: All sugar to peaches and let stand 30 minutes. Soften gelatin in cold water. Drain syrup from peaches and heat. Then dissolve in gelatin. Cool until partially set and then beat until fluffy. Fold in peaches, lemon juice, salt and whipped cream. Pour into crust and chill thoroughly. Garnish top of pie with remaining crumbs and sliced peaches.

BAKED FRESH PEACHES
Seven ripe fresh peaches, two tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, two tablespoons butter or margarine, six macaroons crumbled, one egg yolk. Wash and peel the peaches. Cut six in half, saving one peach for later use. Remove pits and scoop out a little of the center. Mash the remaining peach along with the portion removed from the cavities. Add sugar, lemon rind, butter or margarine, macaroon crumbs and egg yolk. Mix well. Spoon some of the mixture into each peach cavity. Place in a buttered baking dish. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375) for one hour. Yield: six servings.

Make a crumb-like mixture of three tablespoons butter, 3/4 cup sugar and 1/4 cup flour. Line a deep pie plate with your favorite pastry and sprinkle over it one-half of the crumb mixture. Lay on this, with cut side down, peaches which have been peeled and cut in halves. Sprinkle over the top the remaining crumbs and bake in a hot oven (400) for 10 minutes and then in a moderate oven (375) for 30 to 45 minutes or until fruit is tender and crumbs lightly browned.

COTTAGE CHEESE PIE
Crust: 1 1/2 cups cookie crumbs, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 cup softened butter or margarine. Combine cookie crumbs, sugar and butter or margarine. Lightly grease a 10-inch pie plate and pack cookie mixture uniformly over the bottom and sides. While preparing the filling, Filling: 1 1/2 cups (12 ozs.) creamy cottage cheese, 1/2 cup light cream or milk, two tablespoons cornstarch, one tablespoon butter or margarine (melted), one teaspoon pure vanilla extract, one teaspoon grated lemon rind, three eggs separated, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Force cottage cheese through a fine sieve. Blend with cream or milk, cornstarch, butter or margarine, pure vanilla extract and lemon rind. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored into which gradually beat 1/2 cup of the sugar. Stir in cheese mixture. Add salt to egg whites and beat until they stand in soft peaks. Brush a little over the bottom of pie crust. Gradually beat the remaining 1/4 cup sugar into the beaten egg whites and fold into the mixture. Turn into chilled cookie crumb crust. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350) 45 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Cool. Top with the following peach topping. Peach Topping: three cups sliced fresh peaches, 1/2 cup sugar, one teaspoon fresh lemon juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch, dash of salt. Combine peaches, sugar and lemon juice. Let stand until sugar draws juice from peaches, about one hour. Drain juice into a measuring cup. There should be 1/2 cup of liquid. Blend in cornstarch and salt. Cook until transparent. Shortly before serving, arrange peaches over top of pie. Spread with the glaze. Chill. Yield: six servings.

JAM EASY TO MAKE
If you like peaches, a good way to serve the year round is in jam—perfect for breakfasts and between meal snacks. Pennsylvania-grown peaches are reaching markets now and will be plentiful for the next few weeks. Peach jam is most satisfactory when made with added pectin. Use fully-ripe peaches for best flavor. If you prefer not to add pectin, include some underripe fruit. Its higher pectin content gives a firm product.

Mix powdered pectin with the crushed fruit before cooking. Add liquid pectin to the cooked fruit and sugar mixture immediately after the mixture is removed from the heat. When pectin is used, cook fruit one minute at a full boil until bubbles form over the entire surface. Without added pectin, cook until temperature reaches 221 degrees or until jam thickens.

With one package of powdered pectin, use 3/4 cups crushed peaches, 1/2 cup lemon juice and five cups sugar. For each one-half bottle of liquid pectin, use 4 1/4 cups crushed peaches, 1/4 cup lemon juice and seven cups sugar. Stir mixture constantly while cooking to prevent fruit from sticking.

To keep fruit from rising to the top in the finished jam, stir the mixture gently at frequent intervals for five minutes after taking it from the heat. Skin off any foam that appears on the surface. Ladle jam into hot glasses and fill to 1/2 inch from top. Cover at once with a thin layer of hot paraffin. Store in a cool, dry place.

KILL 40 RED GUERRILLAS

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Government ground, air and sea forces have killed 40 Communist Viet Cong guerrillas and captured 60 more in a massive operation in mangrove swamps at the southern tip of Viet Nam, military sources reported today.

The operation began at dawn Wednesday in Ca Mau Province. It was reported still under way today.

Government casualties so far were not reported.

About 3,000 government troops were reported combing the mangrove swamps, supported by fighter planes and naval craft operating through the rivers and canals of the region near the coast.

Family Food Facts

Fresh fruits and vegetables command the attention of the budget-conscious foodshopper at this season of the year. Supplies are pouring into the market from nearby producing areas and prices on most items have reached their low point for the year, according to Tom Piper, Penn State Extension Marketing Agent. This is also the time when homemakers are busiest at canning or freezing supplies for later use.

Your best buys in fresh vegetables include sweet corn, tomatoes, lettuce, cabbage, eggplant, peppers, cucumbers, squash and potatoes. All other vegetables may be considered reasonably good buys. This long list of good buys calls for maximum use of fresh vegetables — plenty of colorful salads and nourishing side dishes.

The local peach harvest is now at its peak as the hot, dry weather has hastened the ripening and is forcing each variety to market a week to ten days ahead of normal. Quality and flavor are excellent on fully ripened fruit. Background color is the best indicator of ripeness: look for a cream or white ground color and remember that peaches are like bananas in that they ripen to excellent dessert quality after they have been picked.

There are plentiful supplies of Rambo apples, popular for cooking, and several varieties of plums, nectarines, pears and grapes for eating out of hand. Most of the melons may be considered excellent buys, including watermelons, cantaloupes, and honeydews.

Poultry and sea food provide the greatest economy in the meat department. Large storage stocks have prompted the food industry to promote "midsummer turkey time": fryers offer good value for the meat dollar. Fillet of flounder, haddock, steak cod, butternut fish and scallops are values in sea food.

Supplies of red meats continue seasonally low and prices on the more popular cuts are higher than usual. Best bets for economy and for retail specializing still appear to be the roasts and steaks from the round and chuck.

Wholesale egg prices have moved slightly higher but this commodity clearly remains a good food buy. Milk and processed dairy products share the plentiful supply position with frozen orange juice.

Old Soldier MacArthur Gets New Honor Today

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Old soldier Douglas MacArthur, one of the most decorated men in American military history, went to the Capitol Thursday to collect his latest honor.

It's an engrossed resolution expressing the thanks of Congress for the exploits of the 82-year-old general of the Army.

Passed by Senate and House last month, it says:

"The thanks and appreciation of the Congress and the American people are hereby tendered to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, in recognition of his outstanding devotion to the American people, his brilliant leadership during and following World War II, and the unsurpassed affection held for him by the people of the Philippines which has done so much to strengthen the ties of friendship between the people of that nation and the people of the United States."

SPECIAL PLANE
President Kennedy assigned an Air Force plane to carry MacArthur from New York, where he lives quietly in a big apartment in the Waldorf Towers.

MacArthur's career as a fighting man covered 32 years and three wars. In World War I he rose to command of the famous Rainbow Division. When Japanese bombs and shells battered Bataan and Corregidor in World War II he departed under orders, but promised: "I shall return."

An island-hopping campaign took him back victorious to the Philippines. After Japan's surrender he was made supreme commander in the Japanese occupation.

When the Korean War broke out, he resumed his fighting role. But in this struggle, he became

FIRED BY TRUMAN
MacArthur wanted to carry the war to the Chinese Reds, by bombing their sanctuary in China.

He called also for Chinese Nationalist invasion of the Red mainland. President Harry S. Truman's policy was to limit the war.

Finally, Truman fired MacArthur in 1951. The general came home to tumultuous homage. In a speech to Congress, he made a line from an old barracks room ballad famous by quoting it: "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away."

DEATHS
RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Alex Leonard Melander, 84, former chairman of the biology department at City College of New York, died Tuesday after a long illness.

NEW YORK (AP) — Hobart Nichols, 93, whose landscape art works hang in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and other galleries throughout the nation, died Tuesday.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Orville Revelle, 60, columnist and editor of the Fort Lauderdale Daily News editorial page, died Monday of a heart attack.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beatrice Clover Holcomb, 66, wife of Gen. Thomas Holcomb, retired commanding general of the Marine Corps, died Tuesday after an illness of several months.

JUDGE FREES HEAD OF PTA

STOTTVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—The state's case against Barbara Barringer, a mother of four and a Parent-Teacher Association president, has been thrown out of court. She isn't a "common gambler."

Justice of the Peace Everett McCormack dismissed the common-gambler charge Wednesday night.

Mrs. Barringer, 29, head of the PTA in this Columbia County community had been arrested by state police Saturday night as she operated a wheel of fortune at a carnival. The fair was sponsored by the Stottville Recreation Committee to raise funds for a community swimming pool.

McCormack dismissed the charge on a technicality — that Mrs. Barringer had been arraigned originally on a deposition rather than an information.

The 75 persons who attended the hearing broke into sustained applause after the dismissal was granted.

Reach Agreement In 13-Year Dispute Over West N. Guinea

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A bitter 13-year dispute over West New Guinea has been ended by an agreement under which the Netherlands will bow out of the big island territory it has ruled for 134 years.

The western half of the island will be transferred first to a temporary U. N. administration and then will be handed over to Indonesia by next May 1. Its final disposition will be decided by a U. N.-supervised plebiscite in 1969.

In the detailed agreement signed by Dutch and Indonesian representatives Wednesday night, the Netherlands government gave up the last bit of its colonial empire in the Far East. Indonesia won independence in 1949.

CREDIT TO THANT

Both Indonesian and Dutch representatives hailed the agreement as a major achievement for acting U. N. Secretary-General U. Thant and his special envoy, former U. S. diplomat Ellsworth Bunker, who negotiated the settlement.

Dutch Premier Jan de Quay took a different tack. In a radio-television address to the Dutch people Wednesday night, he said his government had yielded because the pressure of Indonesian military action "threatened to culminate in a real war" and because "the Netherlands no longer could count upon its allies for support." He obviously referred to the United States.

Thant stepped into the controversy last March after Indonesian President Sukarno's invasion preparations threatened a shooting war. Negotiations proceeded amid a background of sporadic Indonesian paratroop landings, and military clashes continued until within hours of the signing of the agreement.

CEASE-FIRE FRIDAY

Under the approved peace plan, a cease-fire becomes effective at one minute after 7 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, Friday.

Although parts of the settlement are subject to approval by the U. N. General Assembly, which meets Sept. 18, it appeared certain the first steps would be taken by Oct. 1 as agreed by the two nations.

This means a U. N. administrator, supported by a civilian staff and U. N. military force of at least an infantry battalion, will arrive in West New Guinea between Sept. 18 and Oct. 1. The Dutch will start pulling out as soon as the U. N. administrator arrives.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Instead of counting sheep the next time you have insomnia, why not instead mentally make a list of things you feel the world would be better off without?

Here's one man's sample checklist of things he'd be glad to do without.

Cathedral living rooms.

VODKA MARTINIS

Martinis made with vodka. Salads in which the garlic outweighs the lettuce.

All television commercials showing symbolic diagrams of how headache remedies and upset-tummy cures work in the human body.

Shaggy dog stories.

CAREER WOMEN

Career women who try to act "just like one of the boys."

Wives who insist on telling their husbands' faults.

Husbands who insist on telling you their wife's faults.

Plastic tubes you have to squeeze with both hands to get a dribble of mustard or catsup from.

DRIP-DRY SUITS

Drip-dry suits that don't require ironing or press—that is, unless you object to looking as wrinkled as a laundry sack.

Automatic elevators that have so many buttons to push only a man with jet pilot training can get off at the proper floor.

People who tell you, "It's getting a little thin on top, isn't it?"

Any man over 40 who is lean, tanned and muscular — and who wants to let you in on the secret of how you can be that way too.

ROLLER DERBIES

Roller derbies, college panty raids, cocktail canapes, duck-tailed haircuts, and youths who race around small quiet lakes in noisy motor boats.

All race horses that come in second.

Anybody who knocks the New York Mets baseball team — just because they are still a few games out of first place.

THOSE WHO BRAG

Fellows who brag about how much they've dropped in the stock market—and then wait for you to pick up the luncheon check.

Waiters who seek a bigger tip by rushing up and putting an extra dab of butter on your plate — just as you're finishing your coffee at the end of a meal.

Men who always show you pictures of their family before trying to borrow money.

People who send you funny greeting cards because they are too lazy to write you a letter. Payroll checks with deductions that match your take-home pay.

NEW YORK (AP)—Are you middle-aged?

Middle age is like heaven in one respect—many people respect it, but few are in any hurry to get there.

It is a condition that is measured more by your actions and how you feel than the mere number of your years. A man of 35 may be middle-aged while one of 50 is still a mere overripe adolescent.

There is no doubt, however, when a woman reaches middle age. It is the day when she publicly admits for the first time that she is 60 at last. This is usually the day before her 62nd birthday, when she applies to Uncle Sam for Social Security.

Men are the borderline cases. But a man is probably middle-aged if—

His wife, instead of asking how he slept the night before, inquires, "How did you rest?"

DREAMS OF JOB

He dreams more about his job than he does about romance.

He spends more time discussing the unpredictability of the weather than the unpredictability of women.

When he opens his morning paper, he turns first to the obituary columns, second to the business news section, and third to the sports pages.

His son quits borrowing his neckties because they look old-fashioned.

VOTES AGAINST BONDS

He votes against a community bond issue to build a new grammar school.

He is convinced anyone who skis or goes camping is nuts.

He clearly remembers Babe Ruth's lifetime total of home runs, but thinks Mickey Mantle is a new-style cloak for ladies originated by a Dublin designer.

On paydays he brings his paycheck home, and can't recall off-hand when he cashed one himself.

Following the example of his children he calls his wife "Mother" instead of by the pet nickname he once used.

ENJOYS MEDICINE

He enjoys taking medicine more than he does eating a piece of candy.

He wakes up before the alarm clock goes off—and lies there remembering old times.

The younger men in the office, he feels sure, don't have the same morale and pride in their work he had when he first started—and which he still has.

He whimpers like a small child if his wife throws away any of his old clothes while cleaning out the closet.

He can't hum any tune that be-

FIRST POLIO DEATH IN PA.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—State and federal health teams were getting ready today to move into the Cambria County community of Patton for mass polio vaccine inoculations following Pennsylvania's first polio death of the year.

The Cambria County Medical Society said Wednesday Frederick J. Berish, 9, of Patton died of polio July 20 in Miners' Hospital in Spangler.

Three other Patton children, including Berish's 8-year-old sister, Helen Susan, were struck by the disease, the society said. The others were Thomas Larkin, 13, and Cathy Lallemond, 9.

Only Larkin had received Salk vaccine, the society said. He had four shots.

The society said there is no danger of a major outbreak in the area since the incubation period has passed in persons who might be infected.

However, the state and federal departments of Health have scheduled the mass immunization of the Sabin oral polio vaccine for Friday and Saturday in Patton.

WBC To Televis Broadway Shows

NEW YORK (AP)—Television viewers in five major cities may get to see six forthcoming Broadway shows free of charge.

Plans are under way, the Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. said Wednesday to televise the productions the same time first nighters will be watching the live shows in New York theaters. The shows will be taped.

Stations expected to present the plays are WBZ-TV in Boston, KDKA-TV in Pittsburgh, WJZ-TV in Baltimore, KPX in San Francisco, and KYWT in Cleveland.

ALGIERS (AP)—Ahmed Ben Bella's ruling Political Bureau Tuesday stripped guerrilla troops of their police and judicial powers in a move to bring them into a unified national army.

Any dinner guest in his own home who stays after 11 p.m. becomes a mortal enemy.

As he goes through his daily routine of living, the question he silently asks of himself most often is, "When does the fun begin?"

That's middle age!

Find Woman's Body In River

BEL AIR, Md. (AP)—The body of a 26-year-old Abingdon, Md., woman who was involved in a boat accident Thursday night was recovered Thursday from Bush River.

Police said the woman, Lucille Turner, fell overboard from a 17-foot inboard motor craft when the boat hit a piling beneath the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge crossing the river.

A spokesman at Harford Memorial Hospital in Gavage de

Grace said the woman's husband, Linville DeWitt Turner, 35, suffered a compound fracture of the right wrist in the accident.

The spokesman said two of the Turner's children — Kenneth, 4, and Glenn, 12—are staying at the hospital until guardians can be found to care for them. She said Glenn's nose was swollen but Kenneth apparently escaped injury.

Paul Wayne Carter, 26, owner and operator of the craft, and Earl Williams Hampton, 16, both of Abingdon, were taken to the hospital and released.

Carter told police the boat's

Germans Report More Border Shots

KRONACH, Germany (AP)—West German authorities have reported the third shooting incident along East Germany's borders in less than 48 hours.

West German border police said East German border guards shot one of their comrades and presumably killed him Wednesday near the East German border village of Rotheul.

The Western police gave this account of the incident:

The leader of an East German patrol had just dashed across the border and asked for asylum.

Then one member of the patrol turned on his comrades with a raised submarine gun. A shot rang out and the guard collapsed. He was carried away later, apparently dead.

Something you should think about if you're about to buy a truck:

If all trucks were built the same way, cost the same to keep up, were worth the same at trade-in . . . then probably the price tag would be your only concern. It can't be, of course, because some trucks have more quality than others. And marks of quality are the real keys to low cost.

Chevrolet trucks, for example, have double-wall construction, which gives bodies and cabs more strength. Cabs are insulated against heat, cold and noise. A big part of road shock, which shortens truck life, is damped out by Chevrolet's suspension system; it also makes riding in the truck a pleasure. Pickup bodies and cabs are separated to eliminate stress between them.

Value such as this has induced more people to invest in Chevrolet trucks every year since 1937.

This can be a good time to buy a modern new Chevrolet truck

Late summer traditionally is the season for all-around savings on a new Chevrolet truck . . . selection is still good . . . deliveries are prompt . . . and Chevrolet dealers are doubly anxious to put you into a new vehicle in order to make way for next year's models. Coupled with the efficient performance a new Chevrolet truck will give you, it seems evident that you couldn't buy at a better time.

Come in and take full advantage of it!

A Regular Weekly Feature Appearing Fridays—Watch For It!

Families Aim At Up-Dating Bathrooms

One of the most common problems in home improvement concerns the bathroom in the older house. With out-dated fixtures, and a bad layout, this bathroom can seriously inconvenience the growing family.

Often a family should really have two wash rooms if children and adults are to enjoy the privacy dictated by modern, active living. The answer, of course, is modernization and, where possible, addition of a small bathroom.

Bathroom modernization can vary from just the essential replacement of old fixtures to a complete change, including wall and floor coverings, lighting and room layout.

In the first instance, there is much improvement to be gained simply by removing old fixtures and installing modern ones.

The old bathtub can be replaced by a modern tub, in color or white, in one of many attractive contemporary styles.

NEW LAVATORIES

In choosing a new lavatory, there are a wide variety of possibilities. In the pedestal type, one can choose a model with wide ledge on either side of the bowl which is convenient for grooming and placing toiletries.

Another type of lavatory is the cabinet model. No longer does this kind of installation have to be custom-made. Well-known manufacturers offer such units as part of their standard line.

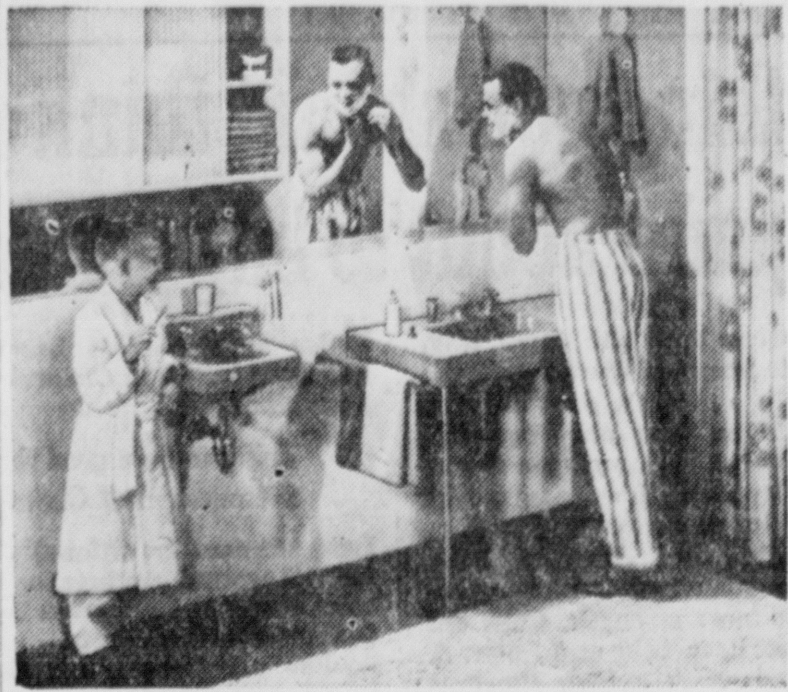

Where bathroom modernization is more extensive, the homeowner has a wealth of possibilities in considering fixtures and accessories. Consultation with a plumbing contractor will give the home owner an idea of how many variations exist.

VARIETY OF TUBS

Tubs can be recessed or corner models; they can be of the luxurious square type, where the tub cavity is on the diagonal and the corners form handy seats.

Instead of one sink, the utility of the bathroom can be upgraded by two pedestal-type sinks, or two drop-in sinks built into a counter-top. Another possibility, which presents itself by re-arranging the fixtures, is a much larger sink than was formerly used.

Perhaps, at first review, there

JUNIOR SHARES BATHROOM with dad by dint of addition of a smaller sink, which is large enough for him to wash and brush his teeth. Fixtures by American-Standard.

PLENTY OF LIGHT for shaving and grooming is provided by flared wall bracket diffusers combined with the fluorescent light above mirror to give light from all directions. By Moe Light.

BEST USE can be made of available space in small bathroom via the angled tub, which fits into a shower-stall area and has a handy corner seat. Restal by American-Standard.

DISPOSABLE SPREADER

Here's how to provide yourself with a supply of cheap, disposable glue spreaders. Cut half-inch slices off a small wooden scrubbing brush using a power saw. Each slice will make an ideal glue spreader and will cost you only about two cents.

Acoustical Ceiling Can Reduce Noise

Acoustical ceiling tiles are the most effective single antinoise measure you can take in your home. They soak up noise like a sponge soaks up water, and absorb 75 to 95 per cent of the sound that would otherwise bounce back into the room.

These tiles are natural home do-it-yourself materials. They can be installed easily by the homeowner if he follows the instructions carefully (each manufacturer provides special instructions for his own materials).

The three main ways of installing sound conditioning materials are cementing, nailing, or stapling and by means of mechanical suspension systems. The method you use will depend upon the ceiling you have.

If your ceiling is of smooth, strong plaster or plaster-board, cementing the acoustical tiles to the surface by means of a special adhesive is best. Make sure the surface is clean, dry, and in good condition, and the paint is sound.

First thing to do in cementing is to make a center-line down the length of the room, and another at right angles to it across the room. Placement of the first tile is important, so that the border tiles will have equal widths.

A putty knife or a small trowel is the only tool you need for applying the cement to the back of the tile. After the adhesive is applied, the tile is pressed into place. Cement spots should be the size

Feature Home Of The Week

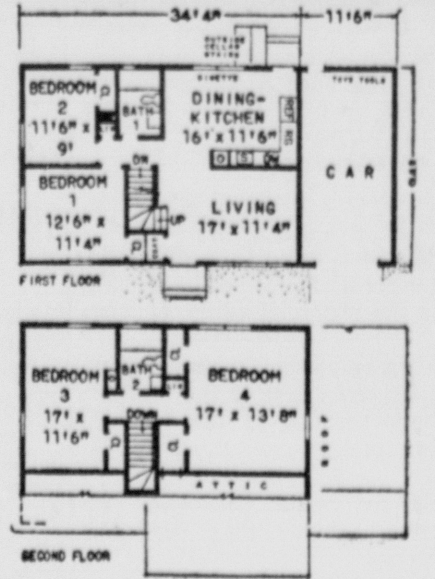

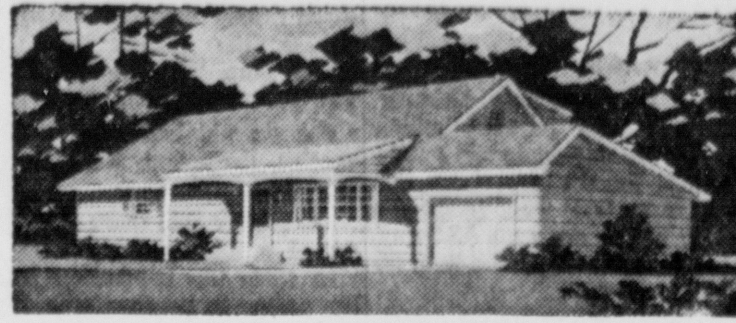

DESIGN C-1883

Neat and trim, this modest home proves that spacious planning can be worked out on a budget. There are two bedrooms on the first floor, with expansion attic space above for two more good-sized chambers.

The kitchen is a real family-styled room 16' wide, and carefully planned for all housekeeping facilities plus a large dinette area at the back under the two bright windows.

The living room is at the front, and here the picture window at the front is a delightful note. With a minimum of hall space, traffic circulation is kept to one side of the living room and there's ready access to the upper floor and bedroom hall without tracking through this important room. First floor living area is 800 sq. ft.

Wide Variety Of Flooring Materials Now Available

The homeowner who is considering the new flooring tiles for one or more rooms in his house, will find a bewildering variety of types of material available.

Each type has its own special properties, and each was designed to meet specific needs. In order to pick the best type for a specific place and purpose, it is well to know all the different kinds and their principal features.

VINYL (tile or sheet) is tough and nonporous, and highly resistant to wear. It comes in clear colors and special effects. The more vinyl content, the higher the price.

VINYL ASBESTOS makes a good all-around, low-cost floor. It is available in a wide variety of colors and designs. It resists stains and wears well.

LINOLEUM (tile or sheet) subdivides as follows: (1) Inlaid linoleum, which is durable, long-wearing and easy to clean and (2) embossed linoleum, which has texture interest, often resembling masonry.

CORK TILE makes an unusually quiet flooring and affords cushioning underfoot. While natural cork will not take the abuse of kitchen traffic, water damage, etc., cork with vinyl or urethane surface is highly resistant to wear, stains and washing.

ASPHALT TILE is lowest in cost of the tile group and is especially popular for use in finished basements and recreation of a walnut, and should be back about one inch from the tile edges. If there are too many bumps in the ceiling, furring strips will have to be nailed to it and the acoustical tile attached to them. Nailing or stapling are generally the best methods of attaching acoustical materials to a solid wood backing or to wood strips.

Some perforated materials come with shallow holes in the corners for nailing. Both perforated and many other kinds of tiles come with tongue-and-groove joints, and with a wide flange through which either nails or staples are driven. Stapling with a staple gun is particularly quick and easy with this type of tile.

rooms. It is, however, susceptible to dents and stains. Some types, though, are grease-resistant, and polymer-resin asphalt is also longer-wearing than other asphalts.

RUBBER TILE makes a cushiony, comfortable flooring and is exceptionally quiet. It comes in clear colors. A point to consider is that it requires constant wax care to maintain appearance.

PRINTED FLOOR COVERINGS are available in a wide variety of patterns and colors. They are probably the most inexpensive of all floor coverings and need no installation, since they unroll like a rug. The vinyl-surfaced types will give the best wear.

TERRAZZO, FLAGSTONE, MARBLE, CERAMIC are good looking masonry materials and make hard, durable floors. "Sealing" makes terrazzo and flagstone easier to clean. The new marble and ceramic tiles need no special protection.

Most of the resilient floor tiles are made in more than one gauge (thickness). Naturally, the thinner gauges cost less and are usually adequate for most home installations. However, if there are slight irregularities in the old floor surface, these may show through. Also if exceptionally heavy traffic is expected, the heavier gauge material should be used.

New Siding Gives Home "Face Lift"

Improving an old home with new siding is an investment that can pay big dividends in appearance and protection. Proper planning and the selection of materials plus attention to detail will assure satisfaction with the completed job.

Here are some suggestions pertinent to this important home improvement job that can help homeowners considering residing this year:

Use competent and experienced workmen. It will pay to deal with an established firm in your city. Select a siding with one of the modern finishes for lasting low maintenance. For example, manufacturers of that old favorite, asbestos-cement siding, report that new plastic and baked-on enamel finishes produce a side-wall material that will last for years with virtually no maintenance cost to the homeowner.

Choose your colors carefully to harmonize with your roof and environment. Most modern siding is now available in a host of colors. A recent survey, for example, showed that asbestos-cement siding comes in more than a hundred shades and hues and that new manufacturing methods insure almost permanent colors without fading for this side-wall material.

Consider having the siding applied in a manner that will accentuate the horizontal shadow line. Ask your applicator about it.

If new gutters and downspouts are to be installed, have them in place before the new siding is put on. This will prevent damage by storm water.

Ask your contractor to explain the several corner treatments possible and choose the one you think is best suited to your house.

Landscaping Increases Home Values

Whether your home planting agenda calls for a few shrubs or complete re-landscaping as part of your home improvement program this spring, it is advised that you follow a basic landscaping plan. For a well planted property not only reflects the beauty and charm of your house, it provides outdoor living for the family, and increases its real estate value.

Plan with a purpose: trees for shade, screens, or accents or color and form — shrubs and evergreens to enhance the architectural lines of the house. Gardens and shrub borders should be planned and not scattered hit or miss about the property, says the American Association of Nurserymen.

CONFORM TO DESIGN

For instance, in planting around the contemporary house with its long lines, keep planting under long picture windows low, and conform to the lines of the house by using low material such as ground covers.

To add height and softness, place a flowering tree away from the house, not against it. Large windowless areas may need to be broken up by an individual plant or grouping.

A good way to start planning your landscaping is to place a piece of tracing paper over a photograph of your house and use a few fundamental shapes and forms to work out groupings. It may take more than one sketch to get the result you want. Use the combination that best brings out the feeling the architect tried to express in his design. Within your chosen outline of shapes, incorporate certain plants as accents. Others will serve as fillers. Select the colors you think will fit the setting. Choose not only color for blooms, but foliage and bark as well. There are many shades of green, from the rich dark green yews to the blue-green spruces or junipers as well as the light, yellow-greens of many deciduous shrubs.

Plans for pleasing color harmony in foliage and flowers. Don't mix strong foliage colors in one grouping. Be subtle.

Carry your plan to the sides and rear of the house. These areas generally serve the family's garden living. Hedges, shrubs, trees provide privacy.

Your sketch should show a group of plants of varying heights.

Handy Hints for Homeowners

WINDOWS RATTLING?

Silence them by driving two of three large rubber-headed tacks against the bottom edges of the lower sash. When the window is closed and locked these will take up the slack and prevent vibration.

STRING DISPENSER

An ordinary metal household funnel can serve as a string dispenser. Nailing it vertically to the wall, drop the ball of string in the top and feed the end of the string out through the bottom. Then pull from the bottom to feed out as much string as needed.

FINDING TINY PARTS

To find a needed small nut, bolt of screw in a box or drawer of odds and ends, simply spread contents on a cardboard or news paper. When you have what you need, shape paper into a "trough," and pour the rest back into the drawer.

TIGHT SEAL

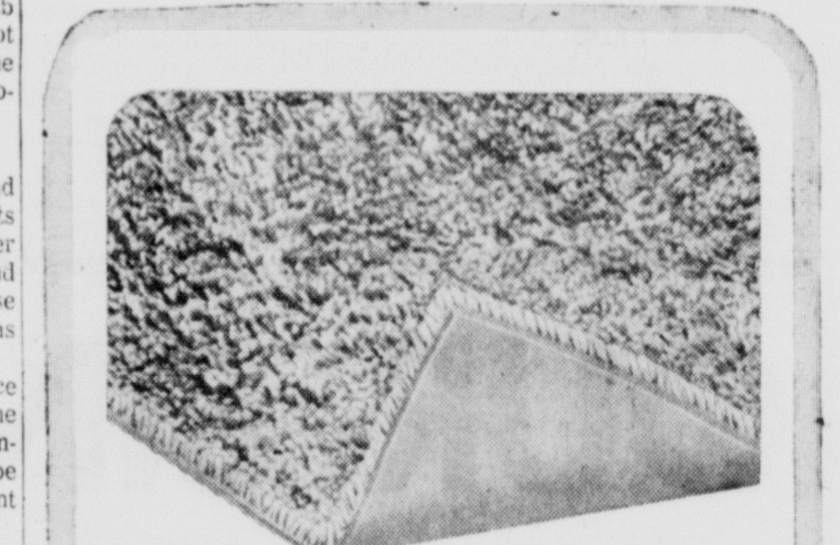

Keep paint can rims clean so that lids will fit tight. This way paint can be stored for a longer period of time without hardening. To keep rims clean punch several nail holes in the bottom of the groove so that accumulated paint can drip down.

A piece of scrap lumber, clamped to the board from which you must saw a very small amount will prevent the saw slipping off.

REUTHER RIFT WITH MEANY IS NOT CONFIRMED

CHICAGO (AP)—Published reports of a rift between top AFL-CIO leaders George Meany and Walter Reuther drew a brusque "no comment" today from their spokesman.

AFL-CIO President Meany and Reuther, vice president of the huge labor organization and head of the United Auto Workers, were closeted in a morning session of the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

A spokesman for the labor leaders snapped "no comment" when asked about reports of a feud between Meany and Reuther over administrative powers of the Executive Council.

NO COMMENT

The spokesman repeatedly refused either to confirm or deny a New York Times story that Meany and Reuther argued heatedly Tuesday night at a private meeting.

The newspaper said that Meany called Reuther a liar several times and Reuther threatened to resign as vice president of the merged labor group.

"While no one attending the quarterly meeting of the Executive Council believed that the strained relations threatened labor unity, most were agreed that they impaired the effectiveness of the federation at a crucial point," the newspaper said.

ISSUES THAT DIVIDE

"The way the two camps see the issues that divide them is this: The old CIO men feel that Meany is trying to exercise a veto power over appointments and policy decisions without regard for past practices, traditions and personal sensibilities."

The immediate cause of Tuesday's stormy session, the Times said, was Reuther's insistence that Ralph Helstein, president of the United Packing House Union, be selected to fill a vacancy on the 29-man Executive Council. Helstein would succeed Leland S. Buckmaster, former president of the United Rubber Workers, now retired.

Meany's position, the newspaper said, is that Helstein is not acceptable because of what he termed the packing house union's left-wing past.

Meany headed the AFL and Reuther the CIO before they merged.

TELSTAR PIX OF IKE BEAMED TO TV SCREENS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Telstar satellite was used Wednesday to send an Associated Press picture of former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower from London directly into AP's wirephoto network to newspapers and television stations across the United States and Canada.

The transmission marked first use of the satellite to transmit a picture directly into an American picture network.

The first picture transmission via Telstar was received late month in the New York offices of AP and United Press International. This was retransmitted to American newspapers.

SHARP AND CLEAR

Wednesday the radio signal was relayed directly into AP's North American Wirephoto network and was received instantaneously by more than 600 member newspaper and television stations.

The photo showed the Eisenhowers looking out from a car window. The former president was making the "V for Victory" sign made famous by another public figure—Winston Churchill.

FAIRFIELD — The officers of the Fairfield-Orrtanna unit of the Salvation Army announced recently that the total given in this year's annual drive was $437.05, the largest amount ever donated by the citizens of these two communities. This sum shows an increase of almost $100 over last year's collections which were at an all time high.

Because of the generosity of the local citizens, five children were able to attend the Salvation Army Camp at Upland, the past two weeks. Children attending were Guy Bowling and Eddie Nagle, Fountaindale; Keith Biecker and Vicki Haines, Orrtanna; Mary Clapsaddle, Mt. Hope.

Transportation to and from camp was provided by the local Lions Club with a committee headed by Harold Day. Those participating were Harold Day, Rev. Otto Kroeger, Edgar Newman, Rev. Robert Paden, Dorsey Schultz and Harvey Walter.

Fourteen members of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 737 hiked from the home of their leader to the home of Mrs. Robert Neely, assistant leader, and were the guests at an outdoor cookout of Mrs. Neely and her daughter, Betsy. Plans were made for forming new patrol in September. The fall schedule will begin September 11 at the home of their leader. Tentative plans are being made for a swimming party, details to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sebald and children, Carrie, Vivian, Carey and Terry, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wolf, Frederick.

Texas Jim Turfle headed the entertainment for the Weishaar reunion which was held Sunday at Memorial Park, Taneytown, attended by 124 relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Weishaar and family of Crewe, Va., received the prize for traveling the longest distance to attend the reunion. The youngest child present was Amy Frances Kuhn, seven weeks. Newest newlyweds were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Weishaar and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reese. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Weishaar were the newest great-grandparents. The door prize was won by Paul Blair, Baltimore.

Officers elected for the coming year were president, Glenn Weishaar Sr.; vice president, Kenneth Weishaar; secretary, Irene Kuhn, and treasurer, Charles Weishaar. The next reunion will be held at the same place on the second Sunday in August, 1963.

SCHOOL REGISTRATION

Recent arrivals in the Taneytown school district are asked to register their children in the school office or by phone on Monday or Tuesday, August 27 or 28. If this is not convenient, registration may be completed anytime by phoning the principal at his home (PL 6-5234). The child's birth certificate and vaccination record, if available, should either be brought or sent to the school. These will be returned as soon as verification is completed.

BELL PHONE WORKERS GET PAY INCREASE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Bell Telephone Co. and the Federation of Telephone Workers of Pennsylvania have reached agreement on a contract providing wage increase of $2 to $5 weekly for 10,400 plant workers.

The settlement Tuesday terminated talks, carried out for four weeks under an annual wage reopener clause.

It followed by less than 2 hours agreement on a contract covering 2,250 accounting employees. That pact provided wage costs of $2 to $4 weekly.

UP $5 WEEKLY

Both employee groups were covered by a contract due to expire next year. Separate negotiations, however, had been underway at Bell's Philadelphia headquarters since last month.

The plant department contract involving workers at 220 locations in the state, covers 33 job titles in the $37 to $130.50 salary range. The accounting pact covers 17 job titles in the $53 to $115.50 range.

The plant agreement calls for $5 weekly raises for some 2,700 top level craftsmen in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and adjacent areas. Seventeen other areas were reclassified to a higher wage schedule.

Increases are retroactive to Aug. 12 if ratified by plant workers by Aug. 31 and accountants by Aug. 28.

San Francisco—Super Shell with Platformate has just delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent. Platformate is Super Shell's mileage ingredient. Shell engineers test Super Shell for mileage in many different types of cars, in many different places. Here's how the test above was run. Exactly 250 cc (about half a pint) of a fuel blended without Platformate was fed into the test car's engine. The car was started, accelerated to 30 miles per hour, then held there until fuel ran out and the car rolled to a stop. Distance: 6186 feet (indicated by dotted line in background). Next, test was repeated, using Super Shell—the same fuel as before but with Platformate added. Precise same volume of fuel. Same car. Same speed. Same driver. Same conditions. Distance: 6454 feet. That's 4.33 percent farther than the car traveled with non-Platformate gasoline.

MILEAGE TEST

New documented tests prove that one of Super Shell's 9 ingredients packs extra mileage into every gallon

THE picture above was snapped a few moments after Super Shell with an extra mileage ingredient called Platformate delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent.

That's a typical result from a series of mileage tests Shell engineers recently ran on the outskirts of San Francisco.

The tests compared two gasolines. One was a gasoline Shell scientists purposely blended without Platformate. The other was Super Shell—the same gasoline as before but with Platformate added.

Shell engineers used a 1962 convertible for the tests. You may be driving a similar car right now.

In test after test, Super Shell with Platformate consistently took the car about 4 percent farther than the gasoline blended without Platformate.

NOTE: For more details on these tests, see caption under picture. And for technical data, write to the Shell Oil Company, 50 West 50 Street, New York 20, N. Y.

Platformate gets its name from the platinum re-forming process used to make it.

Pressures up to 600 pounds per square inch and temperatures up to 1000 degrees literally tear petroleum apart. A precious platinum catalyst then helps re-form the petroleum into super-energy components.

RESULT: Platformate can release more energy per gallon than the finest 100-octane aviation gasoline. Your engine can convert extra energy into extra mileage.

Super Shell has 9 ingredients for top performance

Extra mileage is just one part of the top performance story. Super Shell's other ingredients complete the picture. Here's what they are and what they do.

TCP* for power, mileage, longer plug life.

Pentane mix—for fast "warm-up."

Butane—for quick starts.

Anti-knock mix—to resist all kinds of knock.

Alkylate—to help control "high-speed knock."

"Cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.

Anti-icer—added in cold weather to help check carburetor icing stalls.

Gum preventive—to help keep carburetors clean inside.

Super Shell—the gasoline with 9 ingredients for top performance

Federal Spending Plan Nudges Lagging Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Faster pumping of government funds into the economy is being tried again in lieu of a quickie tax cut.

The sum so far committed—$2 billion to speed highway building—is smaller than the $5-10 billion in income taxes previously considered. But the object is the same—to get a slowing down economy moving again at a brisker pace.

The administration may think up other pump-priming moves toward the same end while it waits for the tax cut and tax reforms.

SPEED SPENDING

Speeding up federal spending also was used in 1960 to nudge a lagging economy. Veterans insurance dividends, for example, were made earlier than usual, and tax refunds were speeded.

The $2 billion this time is being made available to such states as have highway projects far enough along to make immediate use of it. Only about a dozen are reported in that group. The object is to get construction contracts let in coming weeks and thus open up more jobs.

States believed able to use the money now include Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Maine, Minnesota, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, South Dakota and Washington.

MATERIAL ORDERS

If all the $2 billion is spent within the next few months it also will trickle through the economy in the form of orders for materials, road equipment, and spending by workers who get whatever new jobs are created.

The accent is on doing a quick job. The $2 billion doesn't add to the total amount to be spent by the federal government as its part of the huge highway program. It is simply being made available now rather than in the future.

The money comes out of a special fund set up to finance the 41,000-mile interstate highway project.

The states put up part of the money but the federal government will put up most.

STATES PAY TOO

The states had been told they could sign contracts involving $3.8 billion of federal money in the fiscal year ending next June 30. The Commerce Department now says the special trust fund is big enough to take care of $5.8 billion in contracts this fiscal year.

And the department adds that the states can commit this federal money in this quarter, ending Sept. 30, instead of the $948 million originally allowed for this period.

NEED SPENDING NOW

If those states in position to sign contracts now use up the extra allotment, it will add $2 billion of potential spending in the immediate future. And it is in this current period of uncertainty that the federal government is most anxious to see more money spent, more plans started, more orders let.

Other gestures include the recent relaxing of depreciation allowance rules for tax purposes, with the hope that business would order more new equipment, plan more new factories and other facilities.

Several bills that would involve more federal spending are before the Congress.

Some economists question the long-term value to the economy of pump priming by increased government spending. But along with tax cutting it is one of the methods that comes first to mind when economic stagnation is feared.

ZENTNER WILL PLAY HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. — Si Zentner, who brings his band to the Starlight Ballroom of Hershey Park, might be described as a "Johnny Come Lately" in the big band business, having helmed his orchestra for a comparatively short time. But Zentner, who is also one of the top trombonists in show business, has a solid background of band experience.

At 16, young Si Zentner won a coveted philharmonic scholarship from the Guggenheim Foundation after only six months study on the trombone. He made his professional debut in the Catskill Mountain circuit and in 1939 joined Les Brown to play lead trombone in the Band of Renown for three years. Wanting to live in New York, he switched from Brown to Abe Lyman's band, later to join Harry James on the West Coast for radio and motion pictures. Zentner subsequently became a featured soloist with Jimmy Dorsey and first trombonist with MGM's studio orchestra. During this time he was featured on many records with numerous singing stars and name bands.

The Pottstown Band and Glee Club, one of the most popular musical groups to appear at Hershey Park's bandshell, will make its final appearance of the season on Sunday with concerts scheduled from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. There is no admission charge.

SET SAILING RECORD
NEW YORK (AP)—A total of 9,880 passengers sailed for Europe aboard nine ocean liners Thursday, setting another record for a single day's sailing.

Last week saw the breaking of the record sailing day set in 1929.

Disposition Like Christ Is Urged By Saint Paul

By REV. ROBERT N. PADEN
Pastor, Cashtown Charge of the United Church of Christ

"OUTSIDE INTERESTS"

While Paul was in prison in the city of Rome, he was visited by a friend Epaphroditus who came to him from the church in Philippi. The church in Philippi had collected an offering and sent it to Paul that his sufferings might be alleviated. Paul was deeply moved by the concern and love they had shown for him. Without hesitation, he began to write the most intimate letter that came from his hand. There are several reasons why Paul loved the Philippians church so dearly. First of all, he had received a special call from God to go there to preach to them. This was also his very first experience on European soil. And then, too, we know this church was interested in Paul and in his work of proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ to other parts of the world. For these reasons, Paul writes this friendly thank you letter to the people in appreciation of their remembrance.

But as we study this letter in a deeper degree, we find that Paul's concern is not only in expressing appreciation to the people, but somehow, somewhere, he had learned, to his deep sorrow, that this church he loved so much was in danger of going to pieces. It was in danger of being split because of petty jealousy, place of honor among its members, and just rewards for service being done. Thus, Paul seeks to impress upon his readers that they must have more of that new disposition found in Jesus Christ.

LOVE, BROTHERHOOD

That new disposition which is essential in every Christian, the disposition of friendliness, love, brotherhood so well summed up in the words of Paul when he said, "Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others." Let all of us have that certain interest, concern, love, responsibility, for others so we would consider their ideas, feelings and ambitions rather than taking the narrow, selfish view of merely looking out for ourselves. Now Paul did not mean that we should go prying into other people's business and affairs, but he did mean that we should, at the very least, consider other people and their interests before we go plunging toward a goal not considering how it may harm or damage a person.

This church had stood well against outside opposition. But now some rather trivial rivalries had arisen within the group and they were striking with a destructive force. It was the internal cancerous selfishness within members of the church that endangered the fellowship of Christians. And often, I believe, it is this same business of personal rivalry that Paul faced, that is most destructive to the church today.

Jesus was very explicit when He gave His commandment concerning love. His words put the entire responsibility upon you. "Love your neighbor as yourself" implies that you think something of yourself, but at the same time, that you love others with the same concern, the same devotion, and with the same responsibility. They contain that same element of truth as do those of Paul, "let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."

This idea, I believe, would suggest that we should take a good long look at ourselves. We should look at ourselves to study our relationship with the persons next to us. When we do this, we become more involved in the interests and concerns of others. It is like pouring out one's life for another. Jesus, you know, poured out His life, He emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, and became obedient unto death, even death on the cross. So long as we stand back pointing our fingers in another direction, so long as we are willing to blame others, we will create disturbances. But when together we are ready to bow down in humility, becoming servants one to the other, we can create, with the help of God, a more heavenly kingdom even on this earth.

"Present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God. Do not conform to the world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect." We know what is good, we know what is the will of God, we know we are to transform the world. We have not yet fully responded to our challenge. As a beginning to response, I say to you with Paul, "Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."

THE RELIGION OF THE GREEN LIGHT

Go and sin no more . . . go and teach . . . go up higher! Again and again Christ gave the simple command: "GO."

And this positive emphasis on dedicated action best expresses the spirit of His teaching.

Christianity continues to inspire earnest, believing, determined souls eager to translate their faith into constructive and unselfish effort.

In every congregation energetic Christians find opportunities without number for service to Christ and their fellow man.

So GO to Church.

And keep on GOING.

Explore those exciting realms of spiritual adventure to which Christ wants you to GO.

DUTCH DAYS AT HERSHEY

Dutch Days will again resound to the rollicking music of some of the finest strolling and sitting bands in central Pennsylvania during the five-day celebration scheduled for August 22-26 in Hershey.

First on the list is the Hummelstown German Band who will play at the ribbon snipping ceremony when Governor Lawrence opens the celebration on Wednesday of Dutch Days Week.

The Al Shade, of Millersburg, will also perform on opening day in the afternoon and evening in the bandshell, with a variety show of singing and playing.

On Thursday and Friday, Schwab's Dutch Band, of Elizabethtown, will be strolling the park and town rendering their presentations. Sometimes called the "The red-shirted band with the derbies," the group is known for its wide selection and number of tunes. On Thursday evening, Ma. Pa. and the Girls, a group from Middletown, will entertain from the bandshell. Featured at the square dance in the Starlight Ballroom on Friday evening will be Tom Hoffman and His Neighbors from Camp Hill.
